DAILY GAZETTE.

The President and Gen. Fremont's Proclamation.

CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN MR. LINCOLN AND HON. JOSEPH HOLT.

The subjoined correspondence speaks for itself:

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12, 1861.

MY DEAR SIR:—I hasten to place in your hands the enclosed correspondence with the President of the United States. The action which he has taken was firm and decided, and must prove satisfactory to the friends of the Union in Kentucky.

The act of congress alluded to was a necessity under the circumstances, and was fully justified by the usages of civilized warfare. The government has the same right to confiscate slaves engaged in digging trenches or mounting guns for the rebels that it has to confiscate their arms when captured during the progress of the war; but, having confiscated them, congress goes no further. Upon this law the President stands firmly, and in doing so, and in disavowing Gen. Fremont's proclamation, he gives another of the over-multiplying proofs that the war, which is one for national existence, does not seek to extinguish or interfere with slavery as established in the states. If this institution suffers detriment from the events or issues of the rebellion, the blow will come from those who, under the pretence of defending it, are striking at the life of a government under whose constitution it has enjoyed a complete shelter and protection for three-quarters of a century.

The occupation of Columbus by armed Tennesseeans, under the leadership of Bishop Polk and Pillow, has excited no surprise here where the unscrupulous character and ultimate aims of the rebel chieftains are well understood. So long as Kentucky maintained that most illusory of all attitudes—neutrality—and carefully guarded an extended and exposed position of the frontier of the rebel government—in a word, so long as she subserved the purposes of the conspirators seeking the overthrow of the republic, and gave reason to hope that she would finally unite her fortunes with them, she was graciously let alone; so soon, however, as she declared her loyalty to a government to which she is united by the most solemn ties of duty, of affection, and of interest, her soil is ruthlessly invaded, and under the promptings and guidance of traitors in her own bosom, her vote at the polls is now to be reversed by the bayonets of Tennesseeans, and the proud old commonwealth reduced to the condition of a conquered province of that political pandemonium called the southern confederacy. Those who have read the history and know the spirit of her people can have no fear as to the result of this audacious assault upon her independence and honor. The government here will give all possible support to the state at the earliest possible moment.

Very sincerely yours, J. HOLT.
Gen. Jas. Speed, Frankfort, Ky.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.

DEAR SIR:—The late act of congress providing for the confiscation of the estates of persons in open rebellion against the government, was as a necessary war measure accepted and fully approved by the loyal men of the country. It limited the penalty of confiscation to property actually employed in the service of the rebellion with the knowledge and consent of its owners, and, instead of emancipating slaves thus employed, left their status to be determined either by the courts of the United State or by subsequent legislation. The proclamation, however, of Gen. Fremont, under date of the 30th of August, transcends, and of course violates the law in both these particulars, and declares that the property of rebels, whether used in support of the rebellion or not, shall be confiscated, and if consisting in slaves, that they shall be at once manumitted. The act of congress referred to was believed to embody the conservative policy of your administration upon this delicate and perplexing question, and hence the loyal men of the border slave states have felt relieved of all fears of any attempt on the part of the government of the United States to liberate suddenly in their midst a population unprepared for freedom and whose presence could not fail to prove a painful apprehension if not of terror to the homes and families of all.—You may therefore well judge of the alarm and condemnation with which the Union loving citizens of Kentucky—the state with whose popular sentiment I am best acquainted—have read this proclamation. The hope is earnestly indulged by them as it is by myself that this paper was issued under the pressure of a military necessity which Gen. Fremont believed justified the step, but that in the particulars specified it has not your approbation and will not be enforced in derogation of law. The magnitude of the interest at stake and my extreme desire that by no misapprehension of your sentiments or purposes shall the power and fervor of the loyalty of Kentucky be at this moment abated or chilled must be my apology for the frankness with which I have addressed you, and for the request I venture to make of an expression of your views upon the points of Gen. Fremont's proclamation on which I have commented.

I have the honor to be very respectfully your obedient servant. J. HOLT.

His Excellency, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Sept. 12, 1861.

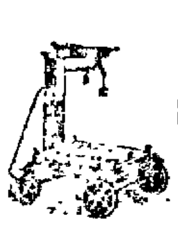

HON. JOSEPH HOLT—Dear Sir:—Yours of this day in relation to the late proclamation of Gen. Fremont is received. Yesterday I addressed a letter to him by mail on the same subject, and which is to be made public when he receives it. I herewith send you a copy of that letter, which perhaps shows my position as distinctly as any new one I could write. I will thank you not to make it public until Gen. Fremont shall have had time to receive the original.

Your obedient servant,
A. LINCOLN.

A NOBLE SENTIMENT.—The patriots of the revolution never uttered a more noble sentiment than Gov. Sprague of R. I. expressed when he said: "Wealth is useless unless it promotes the public welfare, and life itself but a bauble unless it ministers to the honor and glory of our country." The nobility of this sentiment is attested by the fact that Gov. Sprague, who was the wealthiest man in New England, has given from his personal fortune immense sums to promote the cause of the Union, and has periled his life in the foremost ranks of the army upon the battle field.—La Crosse Democrat.

TESTIMONIAL.

To Whom it May Concern:

I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I became blind an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr Folsom, as a skillful oculist I was induced to consult him, though with very little hope of relief. The doctor proposed an operation to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of sight to one eye. Afterward he performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS. VAUGHN.

DAILY GAZETTE.

The President and Gen. Fremont's Proclamation.

CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN MR. LINCOLN AND HON. JOSEPH HOLT.

The subjoined correspondence speaks for itself:

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12, 1861.

MY DEAR SIR:—I hasten to place in your hands the enclosed correspondence with the President of the United States. The action which he has taken was firm and decided, and must prove satisfactory to the friends of the Union in Kentucky.

The act of congress alluded to was a necessity under the circumstances, and was fully justified by the usages of civilized warfare. The government has the same right to confiscate slaves engaged in digging trenches or mounting guns for the rebels that it has to confiscate their arms when captured during the progress of the war; but, having confiscated them, congress goes no further. Upon this law the President stands firmly, and in doing so, and in disavowing Gen. Fremont's proclamation, he gives another of the over-multiplying proofs that the war, which is one for national existence, does not seek to extinguish or interfere with slavery as established in the states. If this institution suffers detriment from the events or issues of the rebellion, the blow will come from those who, under the pretence of defending it, are striking at the life of a government under whose constitution it has enjoyed a complete shelter and protection for three-quarters of a century.

The occupation of Columbus by armed Tennesseeans, under the leadership of Bishop Polk and Pillow, has excited no surprise here where the unscrupulous character and ultimate aims of the rebel chieftains are well understood. So long as Kentucky maintained that most illusory of all attitudes—neutrality—and carefully guarded an extended and exposed position of the frontier of the rebel government—in a word, so long as she subserved the purposes of the conspirators seeking the overthrow of the republic, and gave reason to hope that she would finally unite her fortunes with them, she was graciously let alone; so soon, however, as she declared her loyalty to a government to which she is united by the most solemu ties of duty, of affection, and of interest, her soil is ruthlessly invaded, and under the promptings and guidance of traitors in her own bosom, her vote at the polls is now to be reversed by the bayonets of Tennesseeans, and the proud old commonwealth reduced to the condition of a conquered province of that political pandemonium called the southern confederacy. Those who have read the history and know the spirit of her people can have no fear as to the result of this audacious assault upon her independence and honor. The government here will give all possible support to the state at the earliest possible moment.

Very sincerely yours, J. HOLT.
Gen. Jas. Speed, Frankfort, Ky.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.

DEAR SIR:—The late act of congress providing for the confiscation of the estates of persons in open rebellion against the government, was as a necessary war measure accepted and fully approved by the loyal men of the country. It limited the penalty of confiscation to property actually employed in the service of the rebellion with the knowledge and consent of its owners, and, instead of emancipating slaves thus employed, left their status to be determined either by the courts of the United State or by subsequent legislation. The proclamation, however, of Gen. Fremont, under date of the 30th of August, transcends, and of course violates the law in both these particulars, and declares that the property of rebels, whether used in support of the rebellion or not, shall be confiscated, and if consisting in slaves, that they shall be at once manumitted. The act of congress referred to was believed to embody the conservative policy of your administration upon this delicate and perplexing question, and hence the loyal men of the border slave states have felt relieved of all fears of any attempt on the part of the government of the United States to liberate suddenly in their midst a population unprepared for freedom and whose presence could not fail to prove a painful apprehension if not of terror to the homes and families of all.—You may therefore well judge of the alarm and condemnation with which the Union loving citizens of Kentucky—the state with whose popular sentiment I am best acquainted—have read this proclamation. The hope is earnestly indulged by them as it is by myself that this paper was issued under the pressure of a military necessity which Gen. Fremont believed justified the step, but that in the particulars specified it has not your approbation and will not be enforced in derogation of law. The magnitude of the interest at stake and my extreme desire that by no misapprehension of your sentiments or purposes shall the power and fervor of the loyalty of Kentucky be at this moment abated or chilled must be my apology for the frankness with which I have addressed you, and for the request I venture to make of an expression of your views upon the points of Gen. Fremont's proclamation on which I have commented.

I have the honor to be very respectfully your obedient servant. J. HOLT.
His Excellency, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Sept. 12, 1861.

HON. JOSEPH HOLT—Dear Sir:—Yours of this day in relation to the late proclamation of Gen. Fremont is received. Yesterday I addressed a letter to him by mail on the same subject, and which is to be made public when he receives it. I herewith send you a copy of that letter, which perhaps shows my position as distinctly as any new one I could write. I will thank you not to make it public until Gen. Fremont shall have had time to receive the original.

Your obedient servant,
A. LINCOLN.

A NOBLE SENTIMENT.—The patriots of the revolution never uttered a more noble sentiment than Gov. Sprague of R. I. expressed when he said: "Wealth is useless unless it promotes the public welfare, and life itself but a bauble unless it ministers to the honor and glory of our country." The nobility of this sentiment is attested by the fact that Gov. Sprague, who was the wealthiest man in New England, has given from his personal fortune immense sums to promote the cause of the Union, and has periled his life in the foremost ranks of the army upon the battle field.—La Crosse Democrat.

TESTIMONIAL.
To Whom it May Concern:

I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I became blind an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr. Folsom, as a skillful oculist, I was induced to consult him, though with very little hopes of relief. The doctor proposed an operation, to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of Sight to one eye. He afterwards performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS. VAUGHN.

By order of the Committee.

Col. Mulligan's Answer.

We have no right to question too closely a man's motives by what he says, nor to attach an interpretation to his words that he did not mean, but on the face of it, and in its common acceptation Col. Mulligan's answer to Gen. Price when that rebel leader demanded the surrender of Lexington, has the appearance of being profane. To the pious it is unquestionably censurable, and if the Colonel is a church member it may subject him to religious discipline. But nobody can deny but what it is terse and to the point. Call it unmilitary and ungentlemanly if you will, yet who can but admire its directness. It is probable that the gallant Price couched his demand for the surrender in dignified, military phrase. He may have even prided himself upon the roundness of his periods and the felicity of his style; he may have put forth a model of good rhetoric. For ought we know he is capable. But see how easily the laconic Mulligan disposes of his fine effort. "Go to h—l." That was the voice of a soldier who was in earnest. And it may have been intended as a piece of advice; a sort of admonition, knowing that Price would have to go there one day, unless he mended his ways very materially. He did not wish to waste words. He was in no parleying mood. Price's language though polished may have been insolent and overbearing, and our hero, perhaps a little passionate, could not brook it. He had other work to do besides framing an answer that would look well on paper, or sound grateful to ears polite or religious. Diplomacy may require prolixity and smooth indirectness. It may dodge a point and stop short of a strait forward conclusion, but in the stern realities of war it is different. The language here must be unmistakeable, clear of all ambiguity, and is best in good plain English; and it should be short as possible, and convey the meaning properly. Our pious friend there may think us irreverent; he may reproach us as atheistical, heterodox, anti-Christian, and bring a hundred other grievous accusations against us. We cannot help it; we excuse, pardon, exculpate the intrepid Col. Mulligan. Nay, we may as well out with the whole of it, we ADMIRE his curt and daring answer. And saucy, rough, pointed, earnest and unmannerly as it is, it speaks volumes, and we trust the president will not order him to "modify" it.

☞ We give for what they are worth, the rumors about Gen. Fremont, reported by the correspondent of the Chicago Times, not crediting their truth at all.

☞ We print in another place two letters from Hon. Joseph Holt of Kentucky, and the President's reply to one addressed to him in relation to Gen. Fremont's proclamation. We cannot deny our disappointment at the position which this able and at present most prominent statesman, has taken. But it was hardly to be expected that he should take that radical view of the subject that northern statesmen of all parties take. He has the prejudices of his education yet to outgrow; a life-long veneration for the sacredness of the peculiar institution to overcome. He is progressive, and the scales will yet fall from his eyes. He will yet be made to see that confiscation act amounts to very little so far as it relates to the human chattels of the traitors; that none of them will ever be found fighting against the government at the command of their masters, and consequently cannot be confiscated under this act; that the only effective way to crush this rebellion is by the prompt and fearless adoption of extreme measures.

☞ The Lancaster district, in Grant county, has chosen J. T. Mills and Jesse Waldorf, delegates to the republican state convention, and instructed them to support Washburn for governor.

☞ We were in hopes again to-day to have had further and more satisfactory news about the battle at Lexington; as it is we are left in the dark, with the apprehension that the town may have been taken by the enemy before reinforcements arrived.

SICKLES AT WORK.—Gen. Sickles has taken 70 or 80 prisoners in the lower counties of Maryland. He captured near Port Tobacco, on Monday night, a splendid barouche and a pair of horses, with their owner and another man, and plenty of letters from Washington to Virginia. The carriage was one of the regular rebel mail wagons.

THE 22,500 ENGLISH SOLDIERS.—By the latest arrivals from England, it is well authenticated that the announcement that the English were about sending 22,500 soldiers to Canada is a canard. The story originated in an idle paragraph in an obscure paper, and had no foundation in fact.

ORFORDVILLE.—Burr Sprague has been appointed post master at Orfordville, in place of George Helmbolt. This appointment suits us. Burr is an old resident, having lived in the vicinity for the last 15 teen years. He received the endorsement of nearly all the business men who got mail matter at his office.

☞ The Boston Post, whose strict democratic orthodoxy will never be questioned, thus speaks of Gen. Fremont's proclamation:

It is evident that as military commander of the state of Missouri he has a right to declare the confiscation of all property, or all that which is as property to the rebels, however it may be estimated by other men, especially if that property becomes an agent in the hands of the rebels to assist them in a successful prosecution of the war. Of the policy of this decided proclamation—of this sending of the shaft home to the heart of the rebellion—there can be little doubt. It is time that the rebels understood that, by their defiance and violation of all law they have, by their own suicidal hands, struck the first blow to that institution, which the political philosophy of Stevens and the sword of Davis would support.

SINGULAR ATTEMPT TO COMMIT SUICIDE.—A stranger, supposed to be a volunteer from Camp Curtain, evidently laboring under an attack of delerium tremens, attempted to commit suicide on Wednesday, about three miles north of Harrisburg, by filling his mouth full of gunpowder, and then setting fire to it. After the explosion he ran to some workmen in an adjoining building, told them what he had done, and that he belonged to camp and was tired life. He bled very profusely at the mouth, and has probably received some internal injury that will cause his death.

THE TOBACCO TRADE.—Virginia has received tens of thousands of dollars annually in this market for tobacco sold here, and shipped from this place to Europe. The tobacco grown and manufactured in Missouri and Kentucky is rapidly finding a market in this city, and large quantities are sent here, and will go abroad also from this port. Missouri and Kentucky have lost their southern trade and are gradually getting a much better demand in the North. Virginia will ere long deeply regret the rebellion in which the Southern Cotton States have driven her. She not only loses her trade, but is made perforce, the principal seat of war which the Cotton States have forced upon the country.—N. Y. Express.

THE HARVEST OF DEATH.—Dr. Lyon, brigade surgeon under Gen. Lyon at the battle of Wilson's Creek, was witness to the following extraordinary incident:

A tall rebel soldier waved a large and costly secession flag defiantly, when a cannon ball struck him to the earth, dead. A second soldier picked up the prostrate flag and waved it again—a second cannon ball shattered his body. A third soldier raised and waved the flag, and a third cannon ball crashed into his breast and he fell dead. Yet the fourth time the flag was raised, the soldier waved it, and turned to climb over the fence into the woods. As he stood astride of the fence a moment, to keep the heavy flag upright, a fourth cannon ball struck him in the side, cutting him completely in two, so that one-half of his body fell on one side, while the flag itself lodged on the fence, and was captured a few minutes afterward by our troops. Our troops captured three rebel flags, but lost none.—Hartford Press.

WHAT IS WANTED.—Gen. Wilson, at the recent Union meeting in Faneuil Hall, Boston, hit the nail on the head when said "we need 150,000 more men in the field at once. Gen. McClellan," said he "I speak what I know—needs 150,000 men on the Potomac to-night, and if he had them the foe would be vanquished in in a week."

GOV. DENNISON IN WASHINGTON.—Governor Dennison, of Ohio arrived at Washington on Saturday morning. His business is stated to be with the War Department, having probable reference to the sending of his surplus forces to Western Virginia, for the purpose of giving protection to Gen. Rosencrans' rear.

A TRAITOR ARRESTED AT BUFFALO.—B. F. Langley, the general southern agent of the Illinois Central railroad, residing in New Orleans, was arrested at the American Hotel in Buffalo, on Sunday last, by order of Secretary Seward. He was immediately sent to Fort Lafayette. He was on his way south when taken into custody, and a large number of letters for parties in the seceded states, were found in his possession.

Southern Grumblings.

Under the caption of "Uses of Adversity," the Charleston Mercury discourses thus on the affair at Hatteras:

"The ways of Providence are full of compensations. What is evil turns out to be a greater good. And thus it is, we are inclined to think, with the invasion of the coast of North Carolina and the capture of some 800 confederate troops. In the first place, this Yankee success, we trust, will put an end to our 'masterly inactivity' on the Potomac. Fabius adopted his defensive policy after he had ascertained from three pitched battles, in which the Romans were defeated, that the Carthagenian troops under the leadership of one of the three greatest generals the world has ever seen, were an overmatch for the Roman soldiery. The government of the confederate states has been playing Fabius without having his reasons for his policy. We have not been beaten by the Yankees. On the contrary, in every battle the superiority of the confederate to the United States troops has been evinced. Yet we have persistently hung on to the defensive. From eight to ten thousand troops, with a hundred and forty cannon bearing on Fort Pickens have been diligently watching the said fort. We watched Fort Sumter with equal energy, when our enemy was kind enough to put an end to our watching by informing us that he intended to reinforce the fort. Then and not until then, did we do what could as well have been done long before—take the fort. At Bethel Church we stood on the defensive, and so at both of the battles on Bull Run. The battle of Manassas, in its sequels, is, we believe, totally unparalleled in the history of war. We vanquished our enemy with one-half our troops, and with the other half unharmed we neither cut off his retreat nor pursued him in his flight.

And still further, we quietly continued on our camping ground occupied before the fight, and thus gave our enemy ample time to recover from his defeat, and put in force a stronger force to meet us in battle. Under the Fabian policy, our army has remained stationary for the last six weeks, a prey to ennui and discomfort, discontent and disease, while the capitol at Washington could almost be seen from the general's tents. How long this policy of masterly inactivity would have continued, God only knows. It was gravely announced in a Richmond paper, that they were intrepidly waiting for the enemy to come on again. The enemy, however, very wisely determined that, as they were left the range of the whole continent to attack, Bull Run was not the choicest place for their future operations. They accordingly made a descent upon the coast of North Carolina. Perhaps our government was astonished that they did not return to Bull Run; but seeing that such expectations were not in accordance with Yankee policy, they see the necessity of advancing on Washington. It is clear that our Yankee enemies, always pushing us into our best position, intend to force us into the alternative of a campaign in Maryland, or the devastation of our sea coast. The Carolinas, Georgia and Florida are to be defended in Maryland. It is there, by a firm and aggressive war, that the United States must, on our part, be forced to defend themselves. Immediately after the battle of Manassas, the troops threatening Richmond from the sea coast were removed to Washington. Let us turn Washington, liberate Maryland and threaten our march into Pennsylvania, and our coast will be protected. Is not the invasion of North Carolina with all its loss of men and forts, an admirable benefit, if it forces us into the only open policy by which a peace can be won by our arms?

LOOKING ALIKE.—The following incident illustrate how desirous the volunteers are to obey orders, and the good result of their efforts:

"I suppose you will see that I have written mother's letter with a pencil, and yours with pen and ink. It is because we have just had a lot of pen holders and pens given us by government. We have also had a box and a half of shoe blacking given to each man. You will remember that in my last letter I stated that G. F., one of the privates, had no shoes. When the colonel gave us the blacking, he said he wanted us to look as much alike as possible. So G. F. went to work and blackened his feet and polished them, and when the colonel came along on dress parade, he asked F. why he did that? He replied, "to look as much alike as possible." The colonel burst out laughing, and went, after parade, to the store, and bought him a pair of shoes with his own money.

THE OATH OF ALLEGIANCE.—Col. Forney proposes, in a letter from Washington, that the oath of allegiance to the United States government, in accordance with the late act of congress, be administered in all political assemblages:

No loyal meeting should be held hereafter without having the new oath presented to every one present. All our literary, benevolent and public institutions, of whatever kind, should, present this oath to their members. Let the word go out that every genuine friend of the government and of the flag, wherever he is to be found whether in the pulpit, in the congregation, in the professions, in the school house, in in the mechanic's shop or the counting house—whether in private or in public life, young or old—is expected to swear anew that he is resolved to maintain the government and the flag at all hazards.

HOW GEN. SCOTT TREATS THE PRIVATES.—A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, writing from Washington recently tells the following about Gen. Scott and the volunteer privates:

"Passing Gen. Scott's quarters this afternoon, I was very forcibly impressed with the contrast between his treatment of soldiers and that of hundreds of upstarts, new to the dignity of shoulder straps and authority. A score of bronzed-faced, dusty and perspiring privates had gathered in front of the door, to catch a glimpse of the veteran, as he passed out to enter his carriage. Observing them, he called them up one by one, took them by the hand, inquired the number of their regiment, &c., and all with such combined courtesy and dignity as inspired confidence in the bashful fellows. They turned away with faces beaming with delight at this unexpected interview, and will fight all the better for it."

A SINGULAR WOUND.—It is stated that the surgeon of the hospital at Alexandria reports a singular case of suffering under his charge. A private, engaged in the battle at Bull Run, had a cannon ball pass his face without touching him. He felt a strong concussion of the air on his face as it whistled past, but, regaining his equilibrium, he continued in his place until after the engagement, suffering severely, however, with pain. His cheek soon presented a swollen appearance with increase of pain. He was conveyed to the hospital and is under proper treatment, but the surgeons have had great difficulty in preventing mortification of the parts affected. Experienced army officers say that deaths frequently occur from balls passing without striking the victim.

GEN. BEAUREGARD DEAD.—Under this head a communication appears in the Cincinnati Commercial, of Tuesday, from a person just arrived from New Orleans, who says that Gen. Beauregard died in that city on the 30th ult. The gentleman claims to have had the report from the most authentic sources, and is himself fully persuaded of its truth.

Last Night's Report.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.

This evening's Commercial says: We think we have sufficient authority for saying that so far as any forward movement of troops is concerned, there is no probability of an engagement within 30 days. Of course, if attacked, there will be a general and severe battle. Our troops are well prepared to meet any number the enemy may bring, but for perfecting the arrangements for the onward movement it is deemed best to accomplish certain things, which may not be effectually done in less than 30 days. These matters have no reference to the raising of more men, the government being satisfied that it has all the men it requires.

HARRISBURGH, Sept. 19.

Gov. Curtin has issued a proclamation in accordance with that of the president, ordering that Sept. 26, be observed as a day of fasting and prayer.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.

The subscription to the national loan to-day was $113,000, of which Solomon Sturges, who armed and equipped McClellan's body guard, took $100,000.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.

Flag Officer Stringham having asked to be relieved from the command of the Atlantic squadron, L. M. Gadsburgh has been appointed to succeed him.

The squadron has been divided into two divisions and Capt. Gothsbrough assumes command of the northern divisions, embracing the coast of Virginia and North Carolina.

Capt. F. S. Dupont has been appointed flag officer of the southern Atlantic squadron, embracing the coasts of South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. The new flag officers being juniors to some of the captains now on duty, changes are necessary.

Capt. H. Devis has been detached from special duty at the navy department and appointed captain of the fleet of the south ern squadron.

Com. Dayton has been ordered to duty in the south Atlantic squadron, Lieut. C. R. P. Rogers has been ordered to the United States steam frigate Washington. An order was issued from the war department to-day that the military department of Ohio will in future consist of the state of that name, Indiana and so much of Kentucky as lies within fifteen miles of Cincinnati, under the command of Brig. Gen. Mitchell of the United States volunteers, head quarters at Cincinnati.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 19.

The 39th Ohio, Col. Groesbeck, 3rd Iowa, Lieut. Col. Scott, 15th Illinois, Col. Smith, with the force of Missouri State troops and Iowa State troops, under Cols. Graynor and Edwards; 300 regulars and regular cavalry, and six pieces of artillery, under Capt. Madison, left St. Joseph and Chillicothe in two columns, on Sunday, and expect to reach Lexington yesterday to reinforce Mulligan.

The reason why Gen. Pope did not surprise, rout and capture Martin Green's rebels, Sunday, the 12th, is explained as follows: Gen. Pope was at Hunnewell on Saturday with 800 men, and knowing Green was encamped in the neighborhood of Florida, he determined to make a night march and surprise him; but learning he had 3,500 men, he sent an engine at noon to Shelbina, eight miles distant, with orders to General Hurlbut to send down 500 men to reinforce him, his force being too small to attack such superior numbers; but in consequence of gross mismanagement on the part of Hurlbut, the troops from Shelbina, which should have reached Hunnewell at three o'clock, did not arrive until eleven p. m., when it was too late to start an expedition that night. Another attack was planned for the next night, and Pope marched his 1400 men 24 miles over a broken and almost roadless country and reached Green's camp early Monday morning to find it deserted, Green having been apprised of Pope's design and fled, and his men being mounted, they could not be overtaken.

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 19.

There is no definite intelligence from Lexington to-day. Dispatches were received here this afternoon from Boonville, saying it was reported, and currently believed there, that Lexington had been taken on Tuesday. Two gentlemen who arrived here late this evening, having left Boonville at 7 o'clock this morning, entirely discredit the reports. There were 4 000 federal troops at Boonville, besides the Home Guards.

Special despatch to the Chicago Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.

Postmaster General Blair's report about Major General Fremont occupied the attention of the cabinet yesterday and to-day.

It is understood that the President will remove Fremont.

If not, Blair will resign, and Lincoln will not consent to that.

A reconnoisance of the rebels discloses that they are making new fortifications west and north of Munson's Hill.

There is good reason to believe that the rebel plans for an attack on Washington have been completely frustrated by the arrest of the secession members of the Maryland legislature; and that they will not now attack Washington.

There is a strong pressure on the president to-day from a new quarter, advocating the removal of Gen. Fremont.

It is said, on good authority, that he is removed.

The charges against Fremont, when made public, will startle the whole country.

They involve his incompetency, extravagance and exclusiveness.

No successor has yet been determined upon.

All is quiet in the vicinity of Washington.

Along the line of our outposts there is slight and unimportant skirmishing.

The Intelligencer says: "We believe the frequent threats of the Richmond papers, in regard to closing the Potomac by batteries along the western shore, have never made any serious impression on our military authorities. There are shells enough at command at any time to enable our vessels to dislodge the vessels along the line."

Yesterday Lieut. Dermot, a Virginian, captured at Bull Run, escaped from the military prison on Capitol Hill.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.

The Navy Department has accepted propositions from Messrs. C. S. Bushnell & Co., of New York, Merrick & sons, of Philadelphia, and J. Errickson, for the construction of iron clad vessels.

Within a few days some changes have taken place in the Navy Department.—Captain Wm. W. McKean, of the Niagara, has been appointed flag officer in the Gulf, in place of Captain Wm. Mevine. Flag officer Stringman having asked to be relieved from the command of the Atlantic squadron, Captain L. M. Goldsborough has been appointed to succeed him. The squadron has been divided, and Captain Goldsborough assumes command of the northern division, embracing the coasts of Virginia and North Carolina. Capt. S. F. Dupont has been appointed flag officer of the southern Atlantic squadron, embracing the coasts of South Caroline, Georgia and Florida. The new flag officers being juniors to some of the captains now on duty, other changes are rendered necessary.—Commander Mitroon has been ordered to the Savannah, vice J. B. Hull, detached.—Capt. Marston has been detached from the Cumberland and ordered to the steam frigate Roanoke, vice Capt. Nicholson, detached. Capt. Chauncey has been detached from the Susquehanna and Capt. Lardner appointed to that ship. Commander Chas. H. Davis has been detached from special duty at the navy department, and appointed captain of the fleet of the southern Atlantic squadron. Commander Percival Drayton has been ordered to special duty in the southern Atlantic squadron. Lieut. C R. P. Rogers has been ordered to the U. S. steam frigate Wabash, the flag ship of the southern Atlantic squadron.

Applications for positions as volunteer lieutenants, acting masters and masters mates, should state the ages, and be accompanied by certificates from the last owners of the vessels; and also from several underwriters of the ports whence the applicants have severally sailed. None others will be considered at the navy department.

So much of Virginia as lies west of the Blue Ridge Mountains will constitute in future a separate command, to be called the department of western Virginia, under Brig. Gen. Rosecrans, headquarters in the field.

The war department has issued an order to carry into effect the law of congress by which soldiers may assign portions of their pay for the benefit of their families, the assignment to be entered on a separate roll, according to a prescribed form, under the supervision of their immediate commander at the time of enlistment. The roll is to be transmitted to the paymaster general, who will make the deductions on each pay roll, and the paymasters of the regiments transmit the money for distribution to those in whose favor the assignment is executed.

The attention of the officers of the regular army is again directed to that section of an act of congress which provides that in all cases of enlistment and re-enlistment in the military service the prescribed oath may be administered by any commissioned officer of the army; fees to civil officers for such service will not, therefore, be admitted.

Another army order is as follows: "Volunteer officers sent out to recruit their regiments will be granted fees and passed over the roads leading to and from the points to which they are ordered. Should the route be over roads for which such passes are not granted, they will be paid their actual traveling expenses out of the fund for recruiting and equipping volunteers; but in no case will they receive the 10 cents per mile, in lieu of the transportation of baggage. There are instances in which free passes have been used and this amount drawn for the same distance.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.

Gen. McClellan to-day reviewed Blenker's brigade. He was attended by the secretary of state, Prince de Joinville and sons, and others.

It is generally believed that the government has had for the past two days under consideration the subject of Fremont's administration of affairs in Missouri, irrespective of his proclamation. The result of their deliberations is not known.

ALBANY, Sept. 19.

The democratic state central committee met here to-day. They adopted the following:

Resolved, That the recent course of the President in promptly overruling the assumption of Fremont to transcend the laws, and in limiting his action within the letter of his legitimate authority, meets our unqualified approval.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.

Herald's correspondence.—Gen. McClellan and several of his staff, this afternoon went to examine our earthworks garrisoned by a portion of Gen. Franklin's command. While viewing the enemy's position, Gen. McClellan discovered some 500 or 600 of the enemy approaching about two miles distant. He immediately ordered several rifled cannon put in position, and sent his compliments to the rebels, in the shape of a twenty pound shell, that exploded in their very midst, producing the wildest consternation. The whole force was seen to scatter and fly. There is no doubt that a large number were killed. The enemy did not return the fire.

Gen. McClellan after disposing of this advancing force of rebels, directed his attention to a new battery recently thrown up by the enemy, a short distance south of Munson's Hill, known as Mason's Hill. He threw several shells and shot into their works, causing some of the hands to knock off. They were evidently surprised by this sudden opening of our batteries upon them, as they suddenly disappeared and didn't return fire. Gen. McClellan returned to the city about 9 o'clock.

To-night a deserter from the rebel camp of Munson's Hill, came and was immediately conveyed to Gen. McClellan's head quarters. He stated that Generals Beauregard and Johnston were both at Munson's Hill yesterday, and made thorough re-connoisance of our position. He says there are only about 10,000 soldiers at Munson's Hill, and that the main body of the troops are at Fairfax and Centreville. He says that Jeff. Davis was at these two points on Tuesday last, and reviewed the troops in person. He says he saw Jeff. Davis at Munson's Hill yesterday, who examined our works with a glass. He does not think from all he has seen and could learn, as a private, that there are over 100,000 men at all these points. 1,500 were reported to have been sent from Manassas a few days ago, to northwestern Virginia. When asked if he thought the rebels were going to make an attack on our lines, he replied that they were daily expecting an attack from our forces. He says distinctly that he never heard the intention expressed by the rebels of making an attack on our entrenchments.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.

A recent order of Gen. McClellan declares the firing on an enemy's pickets as contrary to the usage of civilized nations; he therefore orders that there shall be no firing on them unless it becomes necessary to resist an advance or to return fire commenced.

The navy department has received despatches from the flag officer of the East India squadron, who says that Cochin China is at war with the French.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.

No action has yet been taken in the case of Col. Young, respecting his appointment to command of a regiment of Kentucky cavalry.

This is the day fixed by Richmond papers for the advance of Beauregard upon Washington, but there were no signs up to noon to-day of such a movement. The positions of the two armies remain unchanged.

LEAVENWORTH, Sept. 17.

Latest accounts from southern border represent Rains marching northward and Lane's command following him.

The militia of counties in Kansas bordering on the river have been under arms for the last two weeks, to repel any invasion.

IRONTON, Mo., Sept. 18.

A skirmish occurred Thursday at Black River 12 or 15 miles southwest of here, between 3 companies of Indiana cavalry under Maj. Garrit and a body of secessionists under the notorious Ben. Talbot, in which 5 of the rebels were killed and 4 taken prisoners and 35 horses and a quantity of arms captured, the balance scattered in all direction and being familiar with the country eluded pursuit.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 17.

Considerable excitement was created on Saturday by the appearance of confederate scouts on the opposite bank of the river Aco. Twenty mounted men were sent over the river this morning from this place, who discovered a rebel camp of from two to three hundred some twenty miles distant from the river. An additionall force was detailed in the afternoon, who killed seven rebels and took six prisoners, with the same number of horses, and destroyed their barracks. Only one of the federal troops was wounded.

Yesterday a large force of rebels, supposed to be a part of the band recently encamped in St. Joseph, made their appearance four miles below, on the opposite shore, and attempted to cross in an old flat boat, sending a part of their force to attract the attention of the federals by firing into this city and Wyandotte. They were repulsed, however, and the boat sunk.

It is believed they succeeded in crossing at Sibley Ferry, 16 miles below, which they have possession of. Last evening the city was alive with skirmishers of both parties. Several shots were heard but no damage was done.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 20.

A gentleman named King, who left the point on the Missouri river opposite Lexington on Wednesday night, arrived this morning. He reports a severe fight took place on Tuesday for the possession of three ferry boats which lay at the levee. Price's forces advanced on boats in two bodys, one from above and the other below the town, and after a very sharp engagement they were captured. The boats were not on a fair range of Mulligan's guns, his fortifications being so situated as to prevent him from commanding them completely and his force was too small to admit of his making a sortie against Price's overwhelming numbers, but Mr. King says he saw twelve wagon loads of killed and wounded taken off after the fight.

He also says Price assaulted Mulligan's fortifications four or five times on Wednesday, but was repulsed each time, with a of between three and four thousand.

Reinforcements from the north, probably under command of Gen. Sturgis, were expected to arrive late on Wednesday night but as Price had possesion of the ferry boats they would not be able to cross the river and of course could be of little or no service to Mulligan. King's account is quite incoherent and entire reliance not placed on it here. There is little no question however that a battle had taken place but details are as yet unknown.

HEALTH OF JEFF. DAVIS.—The Richmond Examiner of the 9th says:

"President Davis has so far recovered from his recent severe attack of illness as to have been able, on Saturday afternoon, to take an airing in his carriage. It is hoped that in a few days his health will be sufficiently restored to permit his resumption of his active business habits. This will be melancholy tidings, we know, to the sage and saint of the New York Herald, and will prove, we "guess," as bitter as wormwood to the Lincolnites generally; but its announcement will be hailed with earnest gratification throughout the southern confederacy, and we rejoice to "make a note on't."

SATISFACTORY.—The New York Commercial Advertiser grows facetious over the prostration of business in that city. It says: "Why so many stores are labeled 'to let' is on account of the number of left-tenants to be seen in the streets."

MAGOFFIN AND BRECKINRIDGE.—The St. Paul Press says that Magoffin and Breckinridge own considerable property in Minnesota, and the moment they commit any overt act of treason, their title deeds will be looked up by the proper authorities.

Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

By order of the Committee.

Col. Mulligan's Answer.

We have no right to question too closely a man's motives by what he says, nor to attach an interpretation to his words that he did not mean, but on the face of it, and in its common acceptation Col. Mulligan's answer to Gen. Price when that rebel leader demanded the surrender of Lexington, has the appearance of being profane. To the pious it is unquestionably censurable, and if the Colonel is a church member it may subject him to religious discipline. But nobody can deny but what it is terse and to the point. Call it unmilitary and ungentlemanly if you will, yet who can but admire its directness. It is probable that the gallant Price couched his demand for the surrender in dignified, military phrase. He may have even prided himself upon the roundness of his periods and the felicity of his style; he may have put forth a model of good rhetoric. For ought we know he is capable. But see how easily the laconic Mulligan disposes of his fine effort. "Go to h—l." That was the voice of a soldier who was in earnest. And it may have been intended as a piece of advice; a sort of admonition, knowing that Price would have to go there one day, unless he mended his ways very materially. He did not wish to waste words. He was in no parleying mood. Price's language though polished may have been insolent and overbearing, and our hero, perhaps a little passionate, could not brook it. He had other work to do besides framing an answer that would look well on paper, or sound grateful to ears polite or religious. Diplomacy may require prolixity and smooth indirectness. It may dodge a point and stop short of a strait forward conclusion, but in the stern realities of war it is different. The language here must be unmistakeable, clear of all ambiguity, and is best in good plain English; and it should be short as possible, and convey the meaning properly. Our pious friend there may think us irreverent; he may reproach us as atheistical, heterodox, anti-Christian, and bring a hundred other grievous accusations against us. We cannot help it; we excuse, pardon, exculpate the intrepid Col. Mulligan. Nay, we may as well out with the whole of it, we ADMIRE his curt and daring answer. And saucy, rough, pointed, earnest and unmannerly as it is, it speaks volumes, and we trust the president will not order him to "modify" it.

☞ We give for what they are worth, the rumors about Gen. Fremont, reported by the correspondent of the Chicago Times, not crediting their truth at all.

☞ We print in another place two letters from Hon. Joseph Holt of Kentucky, and the President's reply to one addressed to him in relation to Gen. Fremont's proclamation. We cannot deny our disappointment at the position which this able and at present most prominent statesman, has taken. But it was hardly to be expected that he should take that radical view of the subject that northern statesmen of all parties take. He has the prejudices of his education yet to outgrow; a life-long veneration for the sacredness of the peculiar institution to overcome. He is progressive, and the scales will yet fall from his eyes. He will yet be made to see that confiscation act amounts to very little so far as it relates to the human chattels of the traitors; that none of them will ever be found fighting against the government at the command of their masters, and consequently cannot be confiscated under this act; that the only effective way to crush this rebellion is by the prompt and fearless adoption of extreme measures.

☞ The Lancaster district, in Grant county, has chosen J. T. Mills and Jesse Waldorf, delegates to the republican state convention, and instructed them to support Washburn for governor.

☞ We were in hopes again to-day to have had further and more satisfactory news about the battle at Lexington; as it is we are left in the dark, with the apprehension that the town may have been taken by the enemy before reinforcements arrived.

SICKLES AT WORK.—Gen. Sickles has taken 70 or 80 prisoners in the lower counties of Maryland. He captured near Port Tobacco, on Monday night, a splendid barouche and a pair of horses, with their owner and another man, and plenty of letters from Washington to Virginia. The carriage was one of the regular rebel mail wagons.

THE 22,500 ENGLISH SOLDIERS.—By the latest arrivals from England, it is well authenticated that the announcement that the English were about sending 22,500 soldiers to Canada is a canard. The story originated in an idle paragraph in an obscure paper, and had no foundation in fact.

ORFORDVILLE.—Burr Sprague has been appointed post-master at Orfordville, in place of George Helmbolt. This appointment suits us. Burr is an old resident, having lived in the vicinity for the last fifteen years. He received the endorsement of nearly all the business men who get mail matter at his office.

☞ The Boston Post, whose strict democratic orthodoxy will never be questioned, thus speaks of Gen. Fremont's proclamation:

It is evident that as military commander of the state of Missouri he has a right to declare the confiscation of all property, or all that which is as property to the rebels, however it may be estimated by other men, especially if that property becomes an agent in the hands of the rebels to assist them in a successful prosecution of the war. Of the policy of this decided proclamation—of this sending of the shaft home to the heart of the rebellion—there can be little doubt. It is time that the rebels understood that, by their defiance and violation of all law they have, by their own suicidal hands, struck the first blow to that institution, which the political philosophy of Stevens and the sword of Davis would support.

SINGULAR ATTEMPT TO COMMIT SUICIDE.—A stranger, supposed to be a volunteer from Camp Curtain, evidently laboring under an attack of delerium tremens, attempted to commit suicide on Wednesday, about three miles north of Harrisburg, by filling his mouth full of gunpowder, and then setting fire to it. After the explosion he ran to some workmen in an adjoining building, told them what he had done, and that he belonged to camp and was tired life. He bled very profusely at the mouth, and has probably received some internal injury that will cause his death.

THE TOBACCO TRADE.—Virginnia has received tens of thousands of dollars annually in this market for tobacco sold here, and shipped from this place to Europe. The tobacco grown and manufactured in Missouri and Kentucky is rapidly finding a market in this city, and large quantities are sent here, and will go abroad also from this port. Missouri and Kentucky have lost their southern trade and are gradually getting a much better demand in the North. Virginnia will ere long deeply regret the rebellion in which the Southern Cotton States have driven her. She not only loses her trade, but is made perforce, the principal seat of war which the Cotton States have forced upon the country.—N. Y. Express.

THE HARVEST OF DEATH.—Dr. Lyon, brigade surgeon under Gen. Lyon at the battle of Wilson's Creek, was witness to the following extraordinary incident:

A tall rebel soldier waved a large and costly secession flag defiantly, when a cannon ball struck him to the earth, dead. A second soldier picked up the prostrate flag and waved it again—a second cannon ball shattered his body. A third soldier raised and waved the flag, and a third cannon ball crashed into his breast and he fell dead. Yet the fourth time the flag was raised, the soldier waved it, and turned to climb over the fence into the woods. As he stood astride of the fence a moment, to keep the heavy flag upright, a fourth cannon ball struck him in the side, cutting him completely in two, so that one-half of his body fell on one side, while the flag itself lodged on the fence, and was captured a few minutes afterward by our troops. Our troops captured three rebel flags, but lost none.—Hartford Press.

WHAT IS WANTED.—Gen. Wilson, at the recent Union meeting in Faneuil Hall, Boston, hit the nail on the head when said "we need 150,000 more men in the field at once. Gen. McClellan," said he "I speak what I know—needs 150,000 men on the Potomac to-night, and if he had them the foe would be vanquished in in a week."

GOV. DENNISON IN WASHINGTON.—Governor Dennison, of Ohio arrived at Washington on Saturday morning. His business is stated to be with the War Department, having probable reference to the sending of his surplus forces to Western Virginia, for the purpose of giving protection to Gen. Rosencrans' rear.

A TRAITOR ARRESTED AT BUFFALO.—B. F. Langley, the general southern agent of the Illinois Central railroad, residing in New Orleans, was arrested at the American Hotel in Buffalo, on Sunday last, by order of Secretary Seward. He was immediately sent to Fort Lafayette. He was on his way south when taken into custody, and a large number of letters for parties in the seceded states, were found in his possession.

Southern Grumblings.

Under the caption of "Uses of Adversity," the Charleston Mercury discourses thus on the affair at Hatteras:

"The ways of Providence are full of compensations. What is evil turns out to be a greater good. And thus it is, we are inclined to think, with the invasion of the coast of North Carolina and the capture of some 800 confederate troops. In the first place, this Yankee success, we trust, will put an end to our 'masterly inactivity' on the Potomac. Fabius adopted his defensive policy after he had ascertained from three pitched battles, in which the Romans were defeated, that the Carthagenian troops under the leadership of one of the three greatest generals the world has ever seen, were an overmatch for the Roman soldiery. The government of the confederate states has been playing Fabius without having his reasons for his policy. We have not been beaten by the Yankees. On the contrary, in every battle the superiority of the confederate to the United States troops has been evinced. Yet we have persistently hung on to the defensive. From eight to ten thousand troops, with a hundred and forty cannon bearing on Fort Pickens have been diligently watching the said fort. We watched Fort Sumter with equal energy, when our enemy was kind enough to put an end to our watching by informing us that he intended to reinforce the fort. Then and not until then, did we do what could as well have been done long before—take the fort. At Bethel Church we stood on the defensive, and so at both of the battles on Bull Run. The battle of Manassas, in its sequels, is, we believe, totally unparalleled in the history of war. We vanquished our enemy with one-half our troops, and with the other half unharmed we neither cut off his retreat nor pursued him in his flight.

And still further, we quietly continued on our camping ground occupied before the fight, and thus gave our enemy ample time to recover from his defeat, and put in force a stronger force to meet us in battle. Under the Fabian policy, our army has remained stationary for the last six weeks, a prey to ennui and discomfort, discontent and disease, while the capitol at Washington could almost be seen from the general's tents. How long this policy of masterly inactivity would have continued, God only knows. It was gravely announced in a Richmond paper, that they were intrepidly waiting for the enemy to come on again. The enemy, however, very wisely determined that, as they were left the range of the whole continent to attack, Bull Run was not the choicest place for their future operations. They accordingly made a descent upon the coast of North Carolina. Perhaps our government was astonished that they did not return to Bull Run; but seeing that such expectations were not in accordance with Yankee policy, they see the necessity of advancing on Washington. It is clear that our Yankee enemies, always pushing us into our best position, intend to force us into the alternative of a campaign in Maryland, or the devastation of our sea coast. The Carolinas, Georgia and Florida are to be defended in Maryland. It is there, by a firm and aggressive war, that the United States must, on our part, be forced to defend themselves. Immediately after the battle of Manassas, the troops threatening Richmond from the sea coast were removed to Washington. Let us burn Washington, liberate Maryland and threaten our march into Pennsylvania, and our coast will be protected. Is not the invasion of North Carolina with all its loss of men and forts, an admirable benefit, if it forces us into the only open policy by which a peace can be won by our arms?

LOOKING ALIKE.—The following incident illustrate how desirous the volunteers are to obey orders, and the good result of their efforts:

"I suppose you will see that I have written mother's letter with a pencil, and yours with pen and ink. It is because we have just had a lot of pen holders and pens given us by government. We have also had a box and a half of shoe blacking given to each man. You will remember that in my last letter I stated that G. F., one of the privates, had no shoes. When the colonel gave us the blacking, he said he wanted us to look as much alike as possible. So G. F. went to work and blackened his feet and polished them, and when the colonel came along on dress parade, he asked F. why he did that? He replied, "to look as much alike as possible." The colonel burst out laughing, and went, after parade, to the store, and bought him a pair of shoes with his own money.

THE OATH OF ALLEGIANCE.—Col. Forney proposes, in a letter from Washington, that the oath of allegiance to the United States government, in accordance with the late act of congress, be administered in all political assemblages:

No loyal meeting should be held hereafter without having the new oath presented to every one present. All our literary, benevolent and public institutions, of whatever kind, should, present this oath to their members. Let the word go out that every genuine friend of the government and of the flag, wherever he is to be found whether in the pulpit, in the congregation, in the professions, in the school house, in in the mechanic's shop or the counting house—whether in private or in public life, young or old—is expected to swear anew that he is resolved to maintain the government and the flag at all hazards.

HOW GEN. SCOTT TREATS THE PRIVATES.—A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, writing from Washington recently tells the following about Gen. Scott and the volunteer privates:

"Passing Gen. Scott's quarters this afternoon, I was very forcibly impressed with the contrast between his treatment of soldiers and that of hundreds of upstarts, new to the dignity of shoulder straps and authority. A score of bronzed-faced, dusty and perspiring privates had gathered in front of the door, to catch a glimpse of the veteran, as he passed out to enter his carriage. Observing them, he called them up one by one, took them by the hand, inquired the number of their regiment, &c., and all with such combined courtesy and dignity as inspired confidence in the basbful fellows. They turned away with faces beaming with delight at this unexpected interview, and will fight all the better for it."

A SINGULAR WOUND.—It is stated that the surgeon of the hospital at Alexandria reports a singular case of suffering under his charge. A private, engaged in the battle at Bull Run, had a cannon ball pass his face without touching him. He felt a strong concussion of the air on his face as it whistled past, but, regaining his equilibrium, he continued in his place until after the engagement, suffering severely, however, with pain. His cheek soon presented a swollen appearance with increase of pain. He was conveyed to the hospital and is under proper treatment, but the surgeons have had great difficulty in preventing mortification of the parts affected. Experienced army officers say that deaths frequently occur from balls passing without striking the victim.

GEN. BEAUREGARD DEAD.—Under this head a communication appears in the Cincinnati Commercial, of Tuesday, from a person just arrived from New Orleans, who says that Gen. Beauregard died in that city on the 30th ult. The gentleman claims to have had the report from the most authentic sources, and is himself fully persuaded of its truth.

Last Night's Report.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.

This evening's Commercial says: We think we have sufficient authority for saying that so far as any forward movement of troops is concerned, there is no probability of an engagement within 30 days. Of course, if attacked, there will be a general and severe battle. Our troops are well prepared to meet any number the enemy may bring, but for perfecting the arrangements for the onward movement it is deemed best to accomplish certain things, which may not be effectually done in less than 30 days. These matters have no reference to the raising of more men, the government being satisfied that it has all the men it requires.

HARRISBURGH, Sept. 19.

Gov. Curtin has issued a proclamation in accordance with that of the president, ordering that Sept. 26, be observed as a day of fasting and prayer.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.

The subscription to the national loan to-day was $113,000, of which Solomon Sturges, who armed and equipped McClellan's body guard, took $100,000.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.

Flag Officer Stringham having asked to be relieved from the command of the Atlantic squadron, L. M. Gadsburgh has been appointed to succeed him.

The squadron has been divided into two divisions and Capt. Gothsbrough assumes command of the northern divisions, embracing the coast of Virginia and North Carolina.

Capt. F. S. Dupont has been appointed flag officer of the southern Atlantic squadron, embracing the coasts of South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. The new flag officers being juniors to some of the captains now on duty, changes are necessary.

Capt. H. Devis has been detached from special duty at the navy department and appointed captain of the fleet of the southern squadron.

Com. Dayton has been ordered to duty in the south Atlantic squadron, Lieut. C. R. P. Rogers has been ordered to the United States steam frigate Washington. An order was issued from the war department to-day that the military department of Ohio will in future consist of the state of that name, Indiana and so much of Kentucky as lies within fifteen miles of Cincinnati, under the command of Brig. Gen. Mitchell of the United States volunteers, head quarters at Cincinnati.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 19.

The 39th Ohio, Col. Groesbeck, 3rd Iowa, Lieut. Col. Scott, 13th Illinois, Col. Smith, with the force of Missouri State militia and Iowa State troops, under Cols. Craynor and Edwards; 300 regulars and regular cavalry, and six pieces of artillery, under Captain Madison, left St. Joseph and Chillicothe in two columns, on Sunday, and expected to reach Lexington yesterday to reinforce Mulligan.

The reason why Gen. Pope did not surprise, rout and capture Martin Green's rebels, Sunday, the 12th, is explained as follows: Gen. Pope was at Hunnewell on Saturday with 800 men, and knowing Green was encamped in the neighborhood of Florida, he determined to make a night march and surprise him; but learning he had 3,500 men, he sent an engine at noon to Shelbina, eight miles distant, with orders to General Hurlbut to send down 500 men to reinforce him, his force being too small to attack such superior numbers; but in consequence of gross mismanagement on the part of Hurlbut, the troops from Shelbina, which should have reached Hunnewell at three o'clock, did not arrive until eleven p. m., when it was too late to start an expedition that night. Another attack was planned for the next night, and Pope marched his 1400 men 24 miles over a broken and almost roadless country and reached Green's camp early Monday morning to find it deserted, Green having been apprised of Pope's design and fled, and his men being mounted, they could not be overtaken.

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 19.

There is no definite intelligence from Lexington to-day. Dispatches were received here this afternoon from Boonville, saying it was reported, and currently believed there, that Lexington had been taken on Tuesday. Two gentlemen who arrived here late this evening, having left Boonville at 7 o'clock this morning, entirely discredit the reports. There were 4,000 federal troops at Boonville, besides the Home Guards.

Special despatch to the Chicago Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.

Postmaster General Blair's report about Major General Fremont occupied the attention of the cabinet yesterday and to-day.

It is understood that the President will remove Fremont.

If not, Blair will resign, and Lincoln will not consent to that.

A reconnoisance of the rebels discloses that they are making new fortifications west and north of Munson's Hill.

There is good reason to believe that the rebel plans for an attack on Washington have been completely frustrated by the arrest of the secession members of the Maryland legislature; and that they will not now attack Washington.

There is a strong pressure on the president to-day from a new quarter, advocating the removal of Gen. Fremont.

It is said, on good authority, that he is removed.

The charges against Fremont, when made public, will startle the whole country.

They involve his incompetency, extravagance and exclusiveness.

No successor has yet been determined upon.

All is quiet in the vicinity of Washington.

Along the line of our outposts there is slight and unimportant skirmishing.

The Intelligencer says: "We believe the frequent threats of the Richmond papers, in regard to closing the Potomac by batteries along the western shore, have never made any serious impression on our military authorities. There are shells enough at command at any time to enable our vessels to dislodge the vessels along the line."

Yesterday Lieut. Dermot, a Virginian, captured at Bull Run, escaped from the military prison on Capitol Hill.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.

The Navy Department has accepted propositions from Messrs. C. S. Bushnell & Co., of New York, Merrick & sons, of Philadelphia, and J. Errickson, for the construction of iron clad vessels.

Within a few days some changes have taken place in the Navy Departmedt.—Captain Wm. W. McKean, of the Niagara, has been appointed flag officer in the Gulf, in place of Captain Wm. Mevine. Flag officer Stringman having asked to be relieved from the command of the Atlantic squadron, Captain L. M. Goldsborough has been appointed to succeed him. The squadron has been divided, and Captain Goldsborough assumes command of the northern division, embracing the coasts of Virginia and North Carolina. Capt. S. F. Dupont has been appointed flag officer of the southern Atlantic squadron, embracing the coasts of South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. The new flag officers being juniors to some of the captains now on duty, other changes are rendered necessary.—Commander Mirroon has been ordered to the Savannah, vice J. B. Hull, detached.—Capt. Marston has been detached from the Cumberland and ordered to the steam frigate Roanoke, vice Capt. Nicholson, detatched. Capt. Chauncey has been detached from the Susquehanna and Capt. Lardner appointed to that ship. Commander Chas. H. Davis has been detached from special duty at the navy department, and appointed captain of the fleet of the southern Atlantic squadron. Commander Percival Drayton has been ordered to special duty in the southern Atlantic squadron. Lieut. C R. P. Rogers has been ordered to the U. S. steam frigate Wabash, the flag ship of the southern Atlantic squadron.

Applications for positions as volunteer lieutenants, acting masters and masters mates, should state the ages, and be accompanied by certificates from the last owners of the vessels; and also from several underwriters of the ports whence the applicants have severally sailed. None others will be considered at the navy department.

So much of Virginia as lies west of the Blue Ridge Mountains will constitute in future a separate command, to be called the department of western Virginia, under Brig. Gen. Rosecrans, headquarters in the field.

The war department has issued an order to carry into effect the law of congress by which soldiers may assign portions of their pay for the benefit of their families, the assignment to be entered on a separate roll, according to a prescribed form, under the supervision of their immediate commander at the time of enlistment. The roll is to be transmitted to the paymaster general, who will make the deductions on each pay roll, and the paymasters of the regiments transmit the money for distribution to those in whose favor the assignment is executed.

The attention of the officers of the regular army is again directed to that section of an act of congress which provides that in all cases of enlistment and re-enlistment in the military service the prescribed oath may be administered by any commissioned officer of the army; fees to civil officers for such service will not, therefore, be admitted.

Another army order is as follows: "Volunteer officers sent out to recruit their regiments will be granted fees and passed over the roads leading to and from the points to which they are ordered. Should the route be over roads for which such passes are not granted, they will be paid their actual traveling expenses out of the fund for recruiting and equipping volunteers; but in no case will they receive the 10 cents per mile, in lieu of the transportation of baggage. There are instances in which free passes have been used and this amount drawn for the same distance.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.

Gen. McClellan to-day reviewed Blenker's brigade. He was attended by the secretary of state, Prince de Joinville and sons, and others.

It is generally believed that the government has had for the past two days under consideration the subject of Fremont's administration of affairs in Missouri, irrespective of his proclamation. The result of their deliberations is not known.

ALBANY, Sept. 19.

The democratic state central committee met here to-day. They adopted the following:

Resolved, That the recent course of the President in promptly over-ruling the assumption of Fremont to transcend the laws, and in limiting his action within the letter of his legitimate authority, meets our unqualified approval.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.

Herald's correspondence.—Gen. McClellan and several of his staff, this afternoon went to examine our earthworks garrisoned by a portion of Gen. Franklin's command. While viewing the enemy's position, Gen. McClellan discovered some 500 or 600 of the enemy approaching about two miles distant. He immediately ordered several rifled cannon put in position, and sent his compliments to the rebels, in the shape of a twenty pound shell, that exploded in their very midst, producing the wildest consternation. The whole force was seen to scatter and fly. There is no doubt that a large number were killed. The enemy did not return the fire.

Gen. McClellan after disposing of this advancing force of rebels, directed his attention to a new battery recently thrown up by the enemy, a short distance south of Munson's Hill, known as Mason's Hill. He threw several shells and shot into their works, causing some of the hands to knock off. They were evidently surprised by this sudden opening of our batteries upon them, as they suddenly disappeared and didn't return fire. Gen. McClellan returned to the city about 9 o'clock.

To-night a deserter from the rebel camp of Munson's Hill, came and was immediately conveyed to Gen. McClellan's head quarters. He stated that Generals Beauregard and Johnston were both at Munson's Hill yesterday, and made thorough re-connoissance of our position. He says there are only about 10,000 soldiers at Munson's Hill, and that the main body of the troops are at Fairfax and Centreville. He says that Jeff. Davis was at these two points on Tuesday last, and reviewed the troops in person. He says he saw Jeff. Davis at Munson's Hill yesterday, who examined our works with a glass. He does not think from all he has seen and could learn, as a private, that there are over 100,000 men at all these points. 1,500 were reported to have been sent from Manassas a few days ago, to northwestern Virginia. When asked if he thought the rebels were going to make an attack on our lines, he replied that they were daily expecting an attack from our forces. He says distinctly that he never heard the intention expressed by the rebels of making an attack on our entrenchments.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.

A recent order of Gen. McClellan declares the firing on an enemy's pickets as contrary to the usage of civilized nations; he therefore orders that there shall be no firing on them unless it becomes necessary to resist an advance or to return fire commenced.

The navy department has received dispatches from the flag officer of the East India squadron, who says that Cochin China is at war with the French.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.

No action has yet been taken in the case of Col. Young, respecting his appointment to command of a regiment of Kentucky cavalry.

This is the day fixed by Richmond papers for the advance of Beauregard upon Washington, but there were no signs up to noon to-day of such a movement. The positions of the two armies remain unchanged.

LEAVENWORTH, Sept. 17.

Latest accounts from southern border represent Rains marching northward and Lane's command following him.

The militia of counties in Kansas bordering on the river have been under arms for the last two weeks, to repel any invasion.

IRONTON, Mo., Sept. 18.

A skirmish occurred Thursday at Black River 12 or 15 miles southwest of here, between 3 companies of Indiana cavalry under Maj. Garrit and a body of secessionists under the notorious Ben. Talbot, in which 5 of the rebels were killed and 4 taken prisoners and 35 horses and a quantity of arms captured, the balance scattered in all direction and being familiar with the country eluded pursuit.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 17.

Considerable excitement was created on Saturday by the appearance of confederate scouts on the opposite bank of the river Aco. Twenty mounted men were sent over the river this morning from this place, who discovered a rebel camp of from two to three hundred some twenty miles distant from the river. An additionall force was detailed in the afternoon, who killed seven rebels and took six prisoners, with the same number of horses, and destroyed their barracks. Only one of the federal troops was wounded.

Yesterday a large force of rebels, supposed to be a part of the band recently encamped in St. Joseph, made their appearance four miles below, on the opposite shore, and attempted to cross in an old flat boat, sending a part of their force to attract the attention of the federals by firing into this city and Wyandotte. They were repulsed, however, and the boat sunk.

It is believed they succeeded in crossing at Sibley Ferry, 16 miles below, which they have possession of. Last evening the city was alive with skirmishers of both parties. Several shots were heard but no damage was done.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 20.

A gentleman named King, who left the point on the Missouri river opposite Lexington on Wednesday night, arrived this morning. He reports a severe fight took place on Tuesday for the possession of three ferry boats which lay at the levee. Price's forces advanced on boats in two bodys, one from above and the other below the town, and after a very sharp engagement they were captured. The boats were not on a fair range of Mulligan's guns, his fortifications being so situated as to prevent him from commanding them completely and his force was too small to admit of his making a sortie against Price's overwhelming numbers, but Mr. King says he saw twelve wagon loads of killed and wounded taken off after the fight.

He also says Price assaulted Mulligan's fortifications four or five times on Wednesday, but was repulsed each time, with a of between three and four thousand.

Reinforcements from the north, probably under command of Gen. Sturgis, were expected to arrive late on Wednesday night but as Price had possesion of the ferry boats they would not be able to cross the river and of course could be of little or no service to Mulligan. King's account is quite incoherent and entire reliance not placed on it here. There is little in question however that a battle had taken place but details are as yet unknown.

HEALTH OF JEFF. DAVIS.—The Richmond Examiner of the 9th says:

"President Davis has so far recovered from his recent severe attack of illness as to have been able, on Saturday afternoon, to take an airing in his carriage. It is hoped that in a few days his health will be sufficiently restored to permit his resumption of his active business habits. This will be melancholy tidings, we know, to the sage and saint of the New York Herald, and will prove, we "guess," as bitter as wormwood to the Lincolnites generally; but its announcement will be hailed with earnest gratification throughout the southern confederacy, and we rejoice to "make a note on't."

SATISFACTORY.—The New York Commercial Advertiser grows facetious over the prostration of business in that city. It says: "Why so many stores are labeled 'to let' is on account of the number of left-tenants to be seen in the streets."

MAGOFFIN AND BRECKINRIDGE.—The St. Paul Press says that Magoffin and Breckinridge own considerable proprety in Minnesota, and the moment they commit any ove-ract of treason, their title deeds will be looked up by the proper authorities.

THE SEVENTH REGIMENT.—Dr. Palmer telegraphed us yesterday at about three o'clock P. M., as to the time the seventh regiment would pass through this city, but the dispatch did not reach us till after dark, long after our paper was worked off. The regiment will leave Madison to-morrow morning at nine o'clock, and will reach this city between eleven and twelve o'clock. Let us give the boys an enthusiastic reception. They deserve it.

Since writing the above, we are informed that the regiment will tarry here for dinner, and we know enough of the generosity of our citizens to believe that they will furnish an abundant one. The train will arrive at half-past eleven, and remain half an hour.

CAMP TREDWAY.—We understand that the thirteenth regiment, about to be quartered in this city, have selected the above as the name of their camp, in honor of Gen. Tredway, quarter master general of this state. It is an honor well deserved by that officer. He has the high credit of being active, efficient and capable; possessing all the qualifications necessary for an able administration of the responsible office to which he has been called. The ground selected for the camp is in the Third Ward, on a portion of the prairie known as Clark & Withrow's addition.

SUGAR RIVER VALLEY RAILROAD.—The board of directors of this road were in session in this city yesterday and today. They have taken steps to make an effort for the purchase of iron for the road, and transacted other important business in connection with the enterprise.

Messrs. Abeel, Moore and Thompson were elected an executive committee to direct in matters pertaining to the interests of the company. It is a hard time to build railroads, but this company having, last winter, obtained the land grant, are determined to push the enterprise, and if possible complete the road within the next year.

THE PEOPLE'S FAIR.—We did not get time to visit the fair grounds at all, not even to listen to Senator Doolittle's address. That was able of course, and we are promised a copy for publication. The fair was a complete success; the attendance was very large and the receipts satisfactory. Many articles were made by families who did not bring their articles upon the ground.

The sporting match has been adjourned to the 27th inst., to come off on the Fair Grounds.

The premiums awarded and not yet paid, will be paid at Benton's store, one door west of Farmers Mill.

PANORAMA OF THE WAR.—The last chance to see the grand exhibition will be given on Saturday afternoon, next, at 3 o'clock, and in the evening at 8 o'clock.—Admission ten cents. This will give the school children, and all others who do not wish to go out in the evening, an opportunity to see the panorama in the afternoon. Lappin's Hall will be lighted by gas, (the windows being darkened) and the same effect produced in the afternoon as in the evening. Give them a good full house.

POSTPONEMENT.—The concert of Mr. Kemmerer, advertised for this evening, is postponed to to-morrow evening, on account of the unfavorable weather.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—Allow the Relief Committee of the City of Janesville, to express to the exhibitors of vegetables and fruits at the county fair, their thanks for the splendid contribution of articles to the families of soldiers in the war. The contribution consisted of all the vegetables and fruits on exhibition, and will go to the comfort and pleasure of these families for many days. Especial gratitude is due to P. Bidwell, esq., of Harmony, for his exertions as well as large contributions. And to Geo. J. Kellogg, esq., of Belle Cottage Nursery, the secretary of the committee returns special thanks for a beautiful box of the whitest honey. By actions like the foregoing, the people of the county are exhibiting their love for our country's cause, and carry to the hearts of our soldiers, glad feeling of recollections at home.

H. W. COLLINS, Sec'y.

THE SEVENTH REGIMENT.—The Chicago Journal makes the following suggestions with reference to the seventh Wisconsin:

"The seventh Wisconsin regiment of volunteers will arrive in this city on Saturday afternoon between four and five o'clock, via the Chicago and Northwestern Railway. They will go hence over the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad.

We are glad to learn that many of our citizens are bestirring themselves in the matter of giving the gallant Wisconsiners a fitting reception. If the military of this city will but consent to do a little "Home Guard" duty on the occasion, and the civilians open their hearts and provide refreshments, the boys will be treated only as they deserve to be. The P. Ft. W. & C. R. R. Co. will provide the music."

AN ANXIOUS HUSBAND GETS A DISCOMFORTING ANSWER FROM THE SPIRITS.—A lady of Columbus inquired of the spirit rappers how many children she had.

"Four," replied the spirit.

The husband, startled at the accuracy of the reply, stepped up and enquired,

"How many children have I?"

"Two," answered the rapping medium.

The husband and wife looked at each other with an odd smile for a moment, and then retired non-believers.

TRUE COURAGE.—For a man to say that his soul is incapable of fear, is just as absurd as to say, that, from a peculiarity of constitution, when dipped in water, he does not get wet. You, human beings, whoever you may be, when you are placed in danger, and reflect upon the fact, you feel afraid. Don't vapor and say no—we know the mental machine must work, unless [illegible]. Now the thoughtful man admits all this—he admits that a bullet through his brain would be a serious thing for himself, and likewise to his wife [illegible]—he admits he shrinks from such a prospect—he will take pains to protect himself from the risk, but he says that if duty requires him to run the risk he will run it. This is the courage of a civilized man, as opposed to the blind, bull-dog insensibility of the savage. This is courage—to know the existence of danger, but to face it, nevertheless.—Country Parson.

DISAPPOINTMENT.—Good reader, if you and I ever reach the Father's house, we will look back and see that the sharp-tongued, rough visaged, teacher disappointment is one of our guides to bring us thither.—He often took us by the thorny paths. He often stripped us of our worldly goods; but that was only to make us travel the fiercer and faster on our heavenward way. He often led us into the valley of the death shadow; but never did the promises rend so sweetly to us, as when read by the light of faith in that very valley. The cross of Christ was the point toward which he oftenest made us look, and the favorite passage he gave us for our encouragement was "All things work well together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purpose." Dear old rough harsh-handed teacher! we will build a monument to him yet, and hang it with garlands. And on it we will write—"Blessed be the memory of DISAPPOINTMENT.—Independent.

THE REBEL OUTRAGES AT ST. JOSEPHS, MO.—OUR REAPPEARANCE.—After a week's suspension we again resume the publication of our paper, having been forced to suspend by a squad of armed men belonging to the camps at that time in possession of the city. The suppression of our paper was but one of the many acts of lawlessness committed by them, of which we shall have more to say hereafter. Suffice it to say that for a week our city was a scene of lawlessness never before witnessed in this section.—Stores were broken open, goods pressed, private arms and horses taken, and confederate script tendered for the same. In many cases even this was not done; the goods taken and no receipt whatever given for them. Upon the arrival of Col. Smith, of the 16th Illinois, order was restored. Saturday was a quiet day, all the stores being closed by his request. Capt. Wells having been appointed provost marshal, we may now predict a speedy return to the regular routine of business, and our city wear its usual quiet aspect.—St. Josephs Journal, Sept. 16th.

A COMPLIMENT FROM THE WAR DEPARTMENT.—A letter from Hon. Simon Cameron, secretary of war, to Gov. Randall, compliments the executive of Wisconsin highly for the promptness and efficient management shown in fitting out regiments from Wisconsin.

A THOUGHT FOR HUSBANDS.—Rev. Thos. Brainard thus feelingly admonishes married men:

"I would ask husbands to appreciate those who make the joy of their dwellings. Are not the kindnesses of wives often unnoted, unthanked, unregarded? They are shut out from the world's applause; let them rest in the assurances of your gratitude and consideration. When you see them cold and still in death, it will not grieve you to remember that your love has thrown sunshine into the shade of their allotment, that your prayers and example have given aid in the great training of your children."

WILL THE POTOMAC BE CLOSED?—The repeated boasts of the rebel journals of Richmond, that the Potomac was soon to be closed by the batteries at Aquia Creek, has had the effect of alarming some timid people here as to the safety of the navigation of the river. It is not shared in by gentlemen high in authority, who are satisfied that any really dangerous batteries at Aquia Creek or elsewhere, can easily be shelled out by our armed transports. They can undoubtedly impede navigation for a short time; but until they can spare 30,000 men for the permanent occupation of the Lower Potomac, and beat us in more than one battle, they cannot keep navigation closed. It may be, after all, that you will hear of the first fight on the Lower Potomac, as after shelling their batteries our troops may land to obtain possession of them, and thus lead to a general engagement.—Washington Cor. N. Y. World.

The Nashville Union says that at a meeting of the Typographical Association of that city, on the night of the 9th inst., an ordinance dissolving all connection with the National Union was adopted by a unanimous vote.

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

LEATHER WORK,

In Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized hides. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefiting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that these having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

ON the first day of August in every year it is usual for us to get up our closing sale for the season, and having been induced to purchase very largely owing to the low price of imported goods in the early part of the summer, it will be necessary for us, in order to make room for our fall purchases, to dispose of at least

Adjourned until next Thursday evening.

THE SEVENTH REGIMENT.—Dr. Palmer telegraphed us yesterday at about three o'clock P. M., as to the time the seventh regiment would pass through this city, but the dispatch did not reach us till after dark, long after our paper was worked off. The regiment will leave Madison to-morrow morning at nine o'clock, and will reach this city between eleven and twelve o'clock. Let us give the boys an enthusiastic reception. They deserve it.

Since writing the above, we are informed that the regiment will tarry here for dinner, and we know enough of the generosity of our citizens to believe that they will furnish an abundant one. The train will arrive at half-past eleven, and remain half an hour.

CAMP TREDWAY.—We understand that the thirteenth regiment, about to be quartered in this city, have selected the above as the name of their camp, in honor of Gen. Tredway, quarter master general of this state. It is an honor well deserved by that officer. He has the high credit of being active, efficient and capable; possessing all the qualifications necessary for an able administration of the responsible office to which he has been called. The ground selected for the camp is in the Third Ward, on a portion of the prairie known as Clark & Withrow's addition.

SUGAR RIVER VALLEY RAILROAD.—The board of directors of this road were in session in this city yesterday and today. They have taken steps to make an effort for the purchase of iron for the road, and transacted other important business in connection with the enterprise.

Messrs. Abeel, Moore and Thompson were elected an executive committee to direct in matters pertaining to the interests of the company. It is a hard time to build railroads, but this company having, last winter, obtained the land grant, are determined to push the enterprise, and if possible complete the road within the next year.

THE PEOPLE'S FAIR.—We did not get time to visit the fair grounds at all, not even to listen to Senator Doolittle's address. That was able of course, and we are promised a copy for publication. The fair was a complete success; the attendance was very large and the receipts satisfactory. Many entries were made by families who did not bring their articles upon the ground.

The sporting match has been adjourned to the 27th inst., to come off on the Fair Grounds.

The premiums awarded and not yet paid, will be paid at Benton's store, one door west of Farmers Mill.

PANORAMA OF THE WAR.—The last chance to see the grand exhibition will be given on Saturday afternoon, next, at 3 o'clock, and in the evening at 8 o'clock.—Admission ten cents. This will give the school children, and all others who do not wish to go out in the evening, an opportunity to see the panorama in the afternoon. Lappin's Hall will be lighted by gas, (the windows being darkened) and the same effect produced in the afternoon as in the evening. Give them a good full house.

POSTPONEMENT.—The concert of Mr. Kemmerer, advertised for this evening, is postponed to to-morrow evening, on account of the unfavorable weather.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—Allow the Relief Committee of the City of Janesville, to express to the exhibitors of vegetables and fruits at the county fair, their thanks for the splendid contribution of articles to the families of soldiers in the war. The contribution consisted of all the vegetables and fruits on exhibition, and will go to the comfort and pleasure of these families for many days. Especial gratitude is due to P. Bidwell, esq., of Harmony, for his exertions as well as large contributions. And to Geo. J. Kellogg, esq., of Belle Cottage Nursery, the secretary of the committee returns special thanks for a beautiful box of the whitest honey. By actions like the foregoing, the people of the county are exhibiting their love for our country's cause, and carry to the hearts of our soldiers, glad feeling of recollections at home.

H. W. COLLINS, Sec'y.

THE SEVENTH REGIMENT.—The Chicago Journal makes the following suggestions with reference to the seventh Wisconsin:

"The seventh Wisconsin regiment of volunteers will arrive in this city on Saturday afternoon between four and five o'clock, via the Chicago and Northwestern Railway. They will go hence over the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad.

We are glad to learn that many of our citizens are bestirring themselves in the matter of giving the gallant Wisconsiners a fitting reception. If the military of this city will but consent to do a little "Home Guard" duty on the occasion, and the civilians open their hearts and provide refreshments, the boys will be treated only as they deserve to be. The P. Ft. W. & C. R. R. Co. will provide the music."

AN ANXIOUS HUSBAND GETS A DISCOMFORTING ANSWER FROM THE SPIRITS.—A lady of Columbus inquired of the spirit rappers how many children she had.

"Four," replied the spirit.

The husband, startled at the accuracy of the reply, stepped up and enquired,

"How many children have I?"

"Two," answered the rapping medium.

The husband and wife looked at each other with an odd smile for a moment, and then retired non-believers.

TRUE COURAGE.—For a man to say that his soul is incapable of fear, is just as absurd as to say, that, from a peculiarity of constitution, when dipped in water, he does not get wet. You, human beings, whoever you may be, when you are placed in danger, and reflect upon the fact, you feel afraid. Don't vapor and say no—we know the mental machine must work, unless it be diseased. Now the thoughtful man admits all this—he admits that a bullet through his brain would be a serious thing for himself and likewise to his wife and children—he admits he shrinks from such a prospect—he will take pains to protect himself from the risk, but he says that if duty requires him to run the risk he will run it. This is the courage of a civilized man, as opposed to the blind, bull-dog insensibility of the savage. This is courage—to know the existence of danger, but to face it, nevertheless.—Country Parson.

DISAPPOINTMENT.—Good reader, if you and I ever reach the Father's house, we will look back and see that the sharp-tongued, rough visaged, teacher disappointment is one of our guides to bring us thither.—He often took us by the thorny paths. He often stripped us of our worldly goods; but that was only to make us travel the fiercer and faster on our heavenward way. He often led us into the valley of the death shadow; but never did the promises read so sweetly to us, as when read by the light of faith in that very valley. The cross of Christ was the point toward which he oftenest made us look, and the favorite passage he gave us for our encouragement was "All things work well together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purpose." Dear old rough harsh-handed teacher! we will build a monument to him yet, and hang it with garlands. And on it we will write—"Blessed be the memory of DISAPPOINTMENT.—Independent.

THE REBEL OUTRAGES AT ST. JOSEPHS, MO.—OUR REAPPEARANCE.—After a week's suspension we again resume the publication of our paper, having been forced to suspend by a squad of armed men belonging to the camps at that time in possession of the city. The suppression of our paper was but one of the many acts of lawlessness committed by them, of which we shall have more to say hereafter. Suffice it to say that for a week our city was a scene of lawlessness never before witnessed in this section.—Stores were broken open, goods pressed, private arms and horses taken, and confederate script tendered for the same. In many cases even this was not done; the goods taken and no receipt whatever given for them. Upon the arrival of Col. Smith, of the 16th Illinois, order was restored. Saturday was a quiet day, all the stores being closed by his request. Capt. Wells having been appointed provost marshal, we may now predict a speedy return to the regular routine of business, and our city wear its usual quiet aspect.—St. Josephs Journal, Sept. 16th.

A COMPLIMENT FROM THE WAR DEPARTMENT.—A letter from Hon. Simon Cameron, secretary of war, to Gov. Randall, compliments the executive of Wisconsin highly for the promptness and efficient management shown in fitting out regiments from Wisconsin.

A THOUGHT FOR HUSBANDS.—Rev. Thos. Brainard thus feelingly admonishes married men:

"I would ask husbands to appreciate those who make the joy of their dwellings. Are not the kindnesses of wives often unnoted, unthanked, unregarded? They are shut out from the world's applause; let them rest in the assurances of your gratitude and consideration. When you see them cold and still in death, it will not grieve you to remember that your love has thrown sunshine into the shade of their allotment, that your prayers and example have given aid in the right training of your children."

WILL THE POTOMAC BE CLOSED?—The repeated threats of the rebel journals of Richmond, that the Potomac was soon to be closed by the batteries at Aquia Creek, has had the effect of alarming some timid people here as to the safety of the navigation of the river. It is not shared in by gentlemen high in authority, who are satisfied that any really dangerous batteries at Aquia Creek or elsewhere, can easily be shelled out by our armed transports. They can undoubtedly impede navigation for a short time; but until they can spare 30,000 men for the permanent occupation of the Lower Potomac, and beat us in more than one battle, they cannot keep navigation closed. It may be, after all, that you will hear of the first fight on the Lower Potomac, as after shelling their batteries our troops may land to obtain possession of them, and thus lead to a general engagement.—Washington Cor. N. Y. World.

The Nashville Union says that at a meeting of the Typographical Association of that city, on the night of the 9th inst., an ordinance dissolving all connection with the National Union was adopted by a unanimous vote.

This company has been sworn into the service of the United States, has received its tents and camp equippage. The members have received their uniforms entire: some twenty five more men are needed to fill the company to the required number. For the purpose of getting these men a Recruiting Officer, for this company, will be found at the Clothing Store of B. Bornheim until the required number is obtained.

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

LEATHER WORK,

In Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

AN ACT to amend the General Banking Law, and the several acts amendatory thereof.

The People of the State of Wisconsin represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes with the acts amendatory thereof, (see chapter 98 of the general laws of 1858,) is hereby amended as follows: by striking out the following words: "said stocks to be valued at a rate to be estimated and governed by the average rate at which such stocks have been sold in the city of New York within the next six months preceding the time when such stocks are to be left on deposite with the comptroller." By striking out the words "equal to," and inserting after the words "not exceeding" the words "in value." By striking out the following words: "But such public stocks shall in all cases be, or be made to be, equal to a stock producing six per cent per annum, and it shall not be lawful for the bank comptroller to take such stock at a rate above its par value, nor above its current market value in the city of New York at the time of deposit by such person or association of persons," and by inserting in lieu thereof the following, "and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stock which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks; but the comptroller shall not issue for public stock ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks;" so that the said section shall henceforth read as follows: "When ever, hereafter, any person or association of persons formed for the purpose of banking under the provisions of this chapter, shall duly assign and transfer in trust to the treasurer of this state, any portion of the public stocks issued or to be issued by the United States or any state stocks, on which full interest is annually paid such person or association of persons shall be entitled to receive from the bank comptroller an amount of such circulating notes of different denominations registered and countersigned and not exceeding in value the amount of public stocks assigned and transferred as aforesaid, and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stocks which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposits in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks; but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks: Provided, that if in the opinion of the bank comptroller, together with the governor and the secretary of state any stocks offered shall be deemed insecure, they shall not be received as such securities under the provisions of this act; and provided further, that from and after the first day of December, 1861 the bank comptroller shall not receive as security for circulating bank notes any other public stocks than those issued by the state of Wisconsin and the United States.

SEC. 2. Any public stocks described in the preceding section, and issued at a rate of interest less than five per cent per annum to be receivable by the bank comptroller, shall be made to be equal to stocks producing five per cent per annum.

SEC. 3. Section 10 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, is hereby amended by inserting between the word "located" and "to" in the 19th line of said section, the words "or to the judge at chambers."

SEC. 5. The appointment of such agent shall be made in writing and such written appointment shall be delivered to the bank comptroller on or before said first day of December next, who shall file the same in his office. If any bank or banking association shall neglect or refuse to appoint such agent within the time above mentioned the bank comptroller shall appoint such agent for such bank or banking association.

SEC. 6. The bank comptroller shall, immediately after said first day of December next during such time as he may deem advisable publish a list of such agents in one daily newspaper published in the city of Madison, and in one daily newspaper published in the city of Milwaukee, the expense whereof shall be equally divided among the several banks or banking associations so published and to be paid by them to the comptroller on demand under penalty of forfeiture of one hundred dollars, to be collected and applied as provided in respect to the forfeiture named in section 19, chapter 71, of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 7. Every bank or banking association hereafter organized, shall before receiving any circulating notes from the bank comptroller, appoint an agent for the purposes of this act; and such appointment shall be immediately published in the manner aforesaid, at the expense of such bank or banking association, to be collected in the manner above provided.

SEC. 8. Appointments of agents made in pursuance of this act, may be revoked and new appointments of agents made from time to time by delivering such revocation and appointment to the bank comptroller, who shall cause the same to be published as before provided.

SEC. 9. It shall be lawful for any number of banks or banking associations authorized by this act, to appoint an agent to associate together for raising a joint fund to be placed in the hands of their common agent for the redemption of their circulating notes in the city of Milwaukee or Madison and also the circulating notes of other banks in such manner, and under such regulations as may be agreed upon and to employ such agents and clerks as they may deem necessary to carry on the business of such common agency; but nothing in this section contained shall authorize the redemption or purchase by such agency of any circulating notes at a rate of discount greater than is herein provided for, nor relieve such bank from any duty or liability required or imposed by this act.

SEC. 10. Every such bank or banking association in this state, except such banks and banking associations as now are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison shall redeem and pay on demand, in the lawful money of the United States, all circulating notes issued by such banks or banking associations, presented for redemption at the office of the agent of such bank or banking association, during the usual hours of business of bankers, between the hours of ten and three o'clock at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent.

SEC. 11. Every bank or banking association, whose agent shall neglect or refuse to redeem its notes on demand, as aforesaid, shall, on proof being made to the bank comptroller of such neglect or refusal, by the affidavit of the person who presented said notes for redemption or payment, and on depositing in his office the notes so presented, be subject to the same penalties, and be proceeded against in the same manner, as is now provided by law for cases where the circulating notes of any bank or banking association are protested for non payment, unless the comptroller shall be satisfied that there is a good and legal defence against the payment of such notes.

SEC. 12. Every bank and banking association shall redeem its circulating notes as now provided by law, but in case of neglect or refusal to redeem its notes on presentation at its counter, and of protest therefor, such bank or banking association, if not located within the city of Milwaukee or the city of Madison, shall not be liable to the holder of such notes for damages: Provided, it shall within fifteen days after receiving notice from the comptroller to pay the same, redeem said notes in the lawful money of the United States, with interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum; Provided, that the officer or officers of such bank or banking association so neglecting or refusing to redeem its notes on demand, may endorse upon the bills or package of bills so presented, an acknowledgement of such presentation and refusal, and waiving protest upon the same; and such endorsement shall be held as evidence of the statement therein made.

SEC. 13. No bank or banking association shall hereafter receive upon the deposite of bonds, circulating notes to an amount exceeding three times its bona fide cash capital actually paid in, and the bank comptroller is hereby authorized and required to ascertain what the actual cash capital of any bank or banking association applying for circulation, except in exchange for mutilated bills, may be and for this purpose he is authorized to examine any person on oath, and to compel answers under oath, from any officer or stockholder of any bank or banking association so applying, or any other person.

SEC. 14. No bank or banking association shall hereafter be organized in this state, nor shall any more circulating notes be issued to any bank or banking association in this state unless said bank or banking association shall have a bona fide cash capital of at least fifteen thousand dollars actually paid in, which shall remain in such bank or banking association as capital, and employed in legitimate banking at the place where the bank is located, and it is hereby declared that the bonds deposited with the bank comptroller shall not be considered as any evidence of the existence of capital in any such bank or banking association, nor of the amount and extent of such capital, and it is hereby made the duty of the comptroller, before issuing any more circulating notes to any such bank or banking association now organized, or that shall be hereafter organized, except in exchange for mutilated notes, to satisfy himself by an examination under oath of an officer or stockholder of such bank or banking association that it has fully complied with the provisions of this section, and of the next preceding section of this act, and for the purposes of such examination the comptroller, or in his absence the deputy comptroller, is hereby authorized to administer oaths; Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to permit any bank to issue circulating notes to any greater amount than its nominal capital.

SEC. 15. From and after the first day of December next it shall not be lawful for any bank or banking association, banker, broker, company or corporation, to circulate or attempt to circulate, or to pay out as money, any bill, note or other evidence of debt, issued or purporting to have been issued by any bank, banking association, company, corporation or individual located or residing out of this state, unless said bill, or note or evidence of debt shall, for the last six months preceding such circulating or paying out, have been redeemable in the city of New York or Boston in current money of the United States, at a rate of discount not exceeding three fourths of one per cent; and the decision of the bank comptroller as to the rate of such discount shall be final and conclusive. Every bank or banking association, banker or broker, corporation or company, offending against the provisions of this section shall forfeit for each and every offense the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with costs of suit in the name and for the use of any person who shall sue for the same and prosecute such suit to judgment in any court having cognizance thereof.

SEC. 16. Each and every person owning or holding stock in any bank or banking association, who shall sell, transfer or assign his stock or any portion thereof, in any such bank or banking association, shall be held, and remain for the term of six months from and after such sale, transfer or assignment, as aforesaid, personally liable to the amount of stock so as aforesaid sold, transferred or assigned by him for the payment of all the debts and liabilities of such bank or banking association, existing at the time of such sale, transfer or assignment.

SEC. 17. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

SEC. 18. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with, or in any way contravening the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 19. Insurance against loss or damage by fire on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

SECTION 1. Section 22 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes with the thereunto belonging amendment, (see chapter 98 of the general laws of 1858,) is hereby amended as follows: by striking out the following words: "Said stocks to be valued at a rate to be estimated and governed by the average rate at which said stocks have been sold in the city of New York, within the next six months preceding the time when such stocks may be left on deposit with the comptroller." By striking out the words "equal to," and inserting after the words "not exceeding," the words "in value." By striking out the following words: "But such public stocks shall in all cases be, or be made to be equal to a stock producing six per cent per annum; and it shall not be lawful for the bank comptroller to take such stock at a rate above its par value, nor above its current market value in the city of New York at the time of deposit, by such person or association of persons;" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stock which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposit in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks; but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks;" so that the said section shall henceforth read as follows: "When ever, hereafter, any person or association of persons, formed for the purpose of banking under the provisions of this chapter, shall duly assign and transfer in trust to the treasurer of this state, any portion of the public stocks issued or to be issued by the United States or any state stocks, on which full interest is annually paid, such person or association of persons shall be entitled to receive from the bank comptroller an amount of such circulating notes of different denominations, registered and countersigned, and not exceeding in value the amount of public stocks assigned and tranferred as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stocks, which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks, but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks: Provided, that if in the opinion of the bank comptroller, together with the governor and the secretary of state any stocks offered shall be deemed insecure, they shall not be received as such securities under the provisions of this act; and provided, further, that from and after the first day of December, 1861, the bank comptroller shall not receive as security for circulating bank notes, any other public stocks than those issued by the state of Wisconsin and the United States.

SEC. 2. Any public stocks described in the preceding section, and issued at a rate of interest less than five per cent per annum to be receivable by the bank comptroller, shall be made to be equal to stocks producing five per cent per annum.

SEC. 3. Section 40 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, is hereby amended by inserting between the words "located" and "to," in the 19th line of said section, the words "or to the judge at chambers."

SEC. 4. Every bank and banking association now organized in this state, and all banks and banking associations that shall be organized before the 1st of day December, 1861 except such banks and banking associations as are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall, on or before said first day of December next, appoint an agent, who shall keep an office in the city of Milwaukee or in the city of Madison, for the redemption of all circulating notes issued by such bank or banking association, which shall be presented to such agent for payment or redemption.

SEC. 5. The appointment of such agent shall be made in writing, and such written appointment shall be delivered to the bank comptroller on or before said first day of December next, who shall file the same in his office. If any bank or banking association shall neglect or refuse to appoint such agent within the time above mentioned, the bank comptroller shall appoint such agent for such bank or banking association.

SEC. 6. The bank comptroller shall, immediately after said first day of December next, during such time as he may deem advisable, publish a list of such agents in one daily newspaper published in the city of Madison, and in one daily newspaper published in the city of Milwaukee, the expense whereof shall be equally divided among the several banks or banking associations so published, and be paid by them to the comptroller on demand, under penalty of forfeiture of one hundred dollars, to be collected and applied as provided in respect to the forfeiture named in section 16, chapter 71, of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 7. Every bank or banking association hereafter organized, shall before receiving any circulating notes from the bank comptroller, appoint an agent for the purposes of this act; and such appointment shall be immediately published in the manner aforesaid, at the expense of such bank or banking association, to be collected in the manner above provided.

SEC. 8. Appointments of agents made in pursuance of this act, may be revoked and new appointments of agents made from time to time, by delivering such revocation and appointment to the bank comptroller, who shall cause the same to be published as before provided.

SEC. 9. It shall be lawful for any number of banks or banking associations, authorized by this act, to appoint an agent to associate together for raising a joint fund, to be placed in the hands of their common agent for the redemption of their circulating notes, in the city of Milwaukee or Madison, and also the circulating notes of other banks in such manner, and under such regulations as may be agreed upon, and to employ such agents and clerks as they may deem necessary to carry on the business of such common agency; but nothing in this section contained shall authorize the redemption or purchase by such agency of any circulating notes at a rate of discount greater than is herein provided for, nor relieve such banks from any duty or liability required or imposed by this act.

SEC. 10. Every such bank or banking association in this state, except such banks and banking associations as now are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall redeem and pay on demand, in the lawful money of the United States, all circulating notes issued by such banks or banking associations, presented for redemption at the office of the agent of such bank or banking association, during the usual hours of business of bankers, between the hours of ten and three o'clock, at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent.

SEC. 11. Every bank or banking association, whose agent shall neglect or refuse to redeem its notes on demand, as aforesaid, shall, on proof being made to the bank comptroller of such neglect or refusal, by the affidavit of the person who presented said notes for redemption or payment, and on depositing in his office the notes so presented, be subject to the same penalties, and be proceeded against in the same manner, as is now provided by law for cases where the circulating notes of any bank or banking association are protested for non-payment, unless the comptroller shall be satisfied that there is a good and legal defence against the payment of such notes.

SEC. 12. Every bank and banking association shall redeem its circulating notes as now provided by law, but in case of neglect or refusal to redeem its notes on presentation at its counter, and of protest therefor, such bank or banking association, if not located within the city of Milwaukee or the city of Madison, shall not be liable to the holder of such notes for damages: Provided, it shall within fifteen days after receiving notice from the comptroller to pay the same, redeem said notes in the lawful money of the United States, with interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum; Provided, that the officer or officers of such bank or banking association so neglecting or refusing to redeem its notes on demand, may endorse upon the bills or package of bills so presented, an acknowledgement of such presentation and refusal, and waiving protest upon the same; and such endorsement shall be held as evidence of the statement therein made.

SEC. 13. No bank or banking association shall hereafter receive upon the deposite of bonds, circulating notes to an amount exceeding three times its bona fide cash capital actually paid in, and the bank comptroller is hereby authorized and required to ascertain what the actual cash capital of any bank or banking association applying for circulation, except in exchange for mutilated bills, may be and for this purpose he is authorized to examine any person on oath, and to compel answers under oath, from any officer or stockholder of any bank or banking association so applying, or any other person.

SEC. 14. No bank or banking association shall hereafter be organized in this state, nor shall any more circulating notes be issued to any bank or banking association in this state, unless such bank or banking association shall have a bona fide cash capital of at least fifteen thousand dollars actually paid in, which shall remain in such bank or banking association as capital, and employed in legitimate banking at the place where the bank is located; and it is hereby declared that the bonds deposited with the bank comptroller shall not be considered as any evidence of the existence of capital in any such bank or banking association, nor of the amount and extent of such capital; and it is hereby made the duty of the comptroller, before issuing any more circulating notes to any such bank or banking association now organized, or that shall be hereafter organized, except in exchange for mutilated notes, to satisfy himself by an examination under oath of an officer or stockholder of such bank or banking association that it has fully complied with the provisions of this section, and of the next preceding section of this act, and for the purposes of such examination the comptroller, or in his absence the deputy comptroller, is hereby authorized to administer oaths; Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to permit any bank to issue circulating notes to any greater amount than its nominal capital.

SEC. 15. From and after the first day of December next it shall not be lawful for any bank or banking association, banker, broker, company or corporation, to circulate or attempt to circulate, or to pay out as money, any bill, note or other evidence of debt, issued or purporting to have been issued by any bank, banking association, company, corporation or individual located or residing out of this state, unless said bill, or note or evidence of debt shall, for the last six months preceding such circulating or paying out, have been redeemable in the city of New York or Boston in current money of the United States, at a rate of discount not exceeding three fourths of one per cent; and the decision of the bank comptroller as to the rate of such discount shall be final and conclusive. Every bank or banking association, banker or broker, corporation or company, offending against the provisions of this section shall forfeit for each and every offense the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with costs of suit in the name and for the use of any person who shall sue for the same and prosecute such suit to judgment in any court having cognizance thereof.

SEC. 16. Each and every person owning or holding stock in any bank or banking association, who shall sell, transfer or assign his stock or any portion thereof, in any such bank or banking association, shall be held, and remain for the term of six months from and after such sale, transfer or assignment, as aforesaid, personally liable to the amount of stock so as aforesaid sold, transferred or assigned by him for the payment of all the debts and liabilities of such bank or banking association, existing at the time of such sale, transfer or assignment.

SEC. 17. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

SEC. 18. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with, or in any way contravening the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 19. At the general election to be held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November, in the year 1861, at all the usual places of holding elections in this state, for the election of all officers required by law then to be elected, the question whether this act shall become a law and go into effect, or in any manner be in force, shall be submitted to the people, and if the same shall be approved by a majority of all the votes cast on the subject, it shall go into effect; otherwise, it shall not go into effect nor be in force.

SEC. 20. The votes cast on the subject specified in the last preceding section shall be by separate ballot, and shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, on each of them, the words: "For Amendments to the Banking Law;" or "Against Amendments to the Banking Law," which words shall indicate the vote for or against the approval of this act; and the ballots so cast shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner as the votes cast for state officers are required by law to be canvassed, and the secretary of state shall immediately, on the completion of said canvass, publish a statement of the result thereof in the official state paper, and shall communicate the same to the next legislature at the commencement of the session, and he shall also deliver to the state treasurer a certified copy thereof, with a statement of the result of the canvass upon the subject immediately after the completion of the canvass.

DAILY GAZETTE.

The President and Gen. Fremont's Proclamation.

CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN MR. LINCOLN AND HON. JOSEPH HOLT.

The subjoined correspondence speaks for itself:

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12, 1861.

MY DEAR SIR:—I hasten to place in your hands the enclosed correspondence with the President of the United States. The action which he has taken was firm and decided, and must prove satisfactory to the friends of the Union in Kentucky.

The act of congress alluded to was a necessity under the circumstances, and was fully justified by the usages of civilized warfare. The government has the same right to confiscate slaves engaged in digging trenches or mounting guns for the rebels that it has to confiscate their arms when captured during the progress of the war; but, having confiscated them, congress goes no further. Upon this law the President stands firmly, and in doing so, and in disavowing Gen. Fremont's proclamation, he gives another of the over-multiplying proofs that the war, which is one for national existence, does not seek to extinguish or interfere with slavery as established in the states. If this institution suffers detriment from the events or issues of the rebellion, the blow will come from those who, under the pretence of defending it, are striking at the life of a government under whose constitution it has enjoyed a complete shelter and protection for three-quarters of a century.

The occupation of Columbus by armed Tennesseeans, under the leadership of Bishop Polk and Pillow, has excited no surprise here where the unscrupulous character and ultimate aims of the rebel chieftains are well understood. So long as Kentucky maintained that most illusory of all attitudes—neutrality—and carefully guarded an extended and exposed position of the frontier of the rebel government—in a word, so long as she subserved the purposes of the conspirators seeking the overthrow of the republic, and gave reason to hope that she would finally unite her fortunes with them, she was graciously let alone; so soon, however, as she declared her loyalty to a government to which she is united by the most solemn ties of duty, of affection, and of interest, her soil is ruthlessly invaded, and under the promptings and guidance of traitors in her own bosom, her vote at the polls is now to be reversed by the bayonets of Tennesseeans, and the proud old commonwealth reduced to the condition of a conquered province of that political pandemonium called the southern confederacy. Those who have read the history and know the spirit of her people can have no fear as to the result of this audacious assault upon her independence and honor. The government here will give all possible support to the state at the earliest possible moment.

Very sincerely yours, J. HOLT.
Gen. Jas. Speed, Frankfort, Ky.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.

DEAR SIR:—The late act of congress providing for the confiscation of the estates of persons in open rebellion against the government, was as a necessary war measure accepted and fully approved by the loyal men of the country. It limited the penalty of confiscation to property actually employed in the service of the rebellion with the knowledge and consent of its owners, and, instead of emancipating slaves thus employed, left their status to be determined either by the courts of the United State or by subsequent legislation. The proclamation, however, of Gen. Fremont, under date of the 30th of August, transcends, and of course violates the law in both these particulars, and declares that the property of rebels, whether used in support of the rebellion or not, shall be confiscated, and if consisting in slaves, that they shall be at once manumitted. The act of congress referred to was believed to embody the conservative policy of your administration upon this delicate and perplexing question, and hence the loyal men of the border slave states have felt relieved of all fears of any attempt on the part of the government of the United States to liberate suddenly in their midst a population unprepared for freedom and whose presence could not fail to prove a painful apprehension if not of terror to the homes and families of all.— You may therefore well judge of the alarm and condemnation with which the Union loving citizens of Kentucky—the state with whose popular sentiment I am best acquainted—have read this proclamation. The hope is earnestly indulged by them as it is by myself that this paper was issued under the pressure of a military necessity which Gen. Fremont believed justified the step, but that in the particulars specified it has not your approbation and will not be enforced in derogation of law. The magnitude of the interest at stake and my extreme desire that by no misapprehension of your sentiments or purposes shall the power and fervor of the loyalty of Kentucky be at this moment abated or chilled must be my apology for the frankness with which I have addressed you, and for the request I venture to make of an expression of your views upon the points of Gen. Fremont's proclamation on which I have commented.

I have the honor to be very respectfully your obedient servant. J. HOLT.
His Excellency, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Sept. 12, 1861.

HON. JOSEPH HOLT—Dear Sir:—Yours of this day in relation to the late proclamation of Gen. Fremont is received. Yesterday I addressed a letter to him by mail on the same subject, and which is to be made public when he receives it. I herewith send you a copy of that letter, which perhaps shows my position as distinctly as any new one I could write. I will thank you not to make it public until Gen. Fremont shall have had time to receive the original.

Your obedient servant,
A. LINCOLN.

A NOBLE SENTIMENT.—The patriots of the revolution never uttered a more noble sentiment than Gov. Spragne of R. I. expressed when he said: "Wealth is useless unless it promotes the public welfare, and life itself but a bauble unless it ministers to the honor and glory of our country." The nobility of this sentiment is attested by the fact that Gov. Sprague, who was the wealthiest man in New England, has given from his personal fortune immense sums to promote the cause of the Union, and has periled his life in the foremost ranks of the army upon the battle field.—La Crosse Democrat.

TESTIMONIAL.

To Whom it May Concern:

I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I became blind an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr. Folsom, as a skillful oculist, I was induced to consult him, though with very little hopes of relief. The doctor proposed an operation, to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of Sight to one eye. He afterwards performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS. VAUGHN.

Each assembly district, under the new apportionment, will be entitled to two delegates in the convention.

The committee recommend that the primary meetings for the selection of delegates be held on or before the 14th day of September, and that the district committees issue early calls for such meetings, that the people may be thoroughly notified, and choose delegates who fairly reflect their wishes.

M., for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent said district in the Republican State Convention, to be held on the 25th inst.

By order of the Committee.

Col. Mulligan's Answer.

We have no right to question too closely a man's motives by what he says, nor to attach an interpretation to his words that he did not mean, but on the face of it, and in its common acceptation Col. Mulligan's answer to Gen. Price when that rebel leader demanded the surrender of Lexington, has the appearance of being profane. To the pious it is unquestionably censurable, and if the Colonel is a church member it may subject him to religious discipline. But nobody can deny but what it is terse and to the point. Call it unmilitary and ungentlemanly if you will, yet who can but admire its directness. It is probable that the gallant Price couched his demand for the surrender in dignified, military phrase. He may have even prided himself upon the roundness of his periods and the felicity of his style; he may have put forth a model of good rhetoric. For ought we know he is capable. But see how easily the laconic Mulligan disposes of his fine effort. "Go to h—l." That was the voice of a soldier who was in earnest. And it may have been intended as a piece of advice; a sort of admonition, knowing that Price would have to go there one day, unless he mended his ways very materially. He did not wish to waste words. He was in no parleying mood. Price's language though polished may have been insolent and overbearing, and our hero, perhaps a little passionate, could not brook it. He had other work to do besides framing an answer that would look well on paper, or sound grateful to ears polite or religious. Diplomacy may require prolixity and smooth indirectness. It may dodge a point and stop short of a strait forward conclusion, but in the stern realities of war it is different. The language here must be unmistakeable, clear of all ambiguity, and is best in good plain English; and it should be short as possible, and convey the meaning properly. Our pious friend there may think us irreverent; he may reproach us as atheistical, heterodox, anti-Christian, and bring a hundred other grievous accusations against us. We cannot help it; we excuse, pardon, exculpate the intrepid Col. Mulligan. Nay, we may as well out with the whole of it, we ADMIRE his curt and daring answer. And saucy, rough, pointed, earnest and unmannerly as it is, it speaks volumes, and we trust the president will not order him to "modify" it.

☞ We give for what they are worth, the rumors about Gen. Fremont, reported by the correspondent of the Chicago Times, not crediting their truth at all.

☞ We print in another place two letters from Hon. Joseph Holt of Kentucky, and the President's reply to one addressed to him in relation to Gen. Fremont's proclamation. We cannot deny our dissappointment at the position which this able and at present most prominent statesman, has taken. But it was hardly to be expected that he should take that radical view of the subject that northern statesmen of all parties take. He has the prejudices of his education yet to outgrow; a life-long veneration for the sacredness of the peculiar institution to overcome. He is progressive, and the scales will yet fall from his eyes. He will yet be made to see that confiscation act amounts to very little so far as it relates to the human chattels of the traitors; that none of them will ever be found fighting against the government at the command of their masters, and consequently cannot be confiscated under this act; that the only effective way to crush this rebellion is by the prompt and fearless adoption of extreme measures.

☞ The Lancaster district, in Grant county, has chosen J. T. Mills and Jesse Waldorf, delegates to the republican state convention, and instructed them to support Washburn for governor.

☞ We were in hopes again to-day to have had further and more satisfactory news about the battle at Lexington; as it is we are left in the dark, with the apprehension that the town may have been taken by the enemy before reinforcements arrived.

SICKLES AT WORK.—Gen. Sickles has taken 70 or 80 prisoners in the lower counties of Maryland. He captured near Port Tobacco, on Monday night, a splendid barouche and a pair of horses, with their owner and another man, and plenty of letters from Washington to Virginia. The carriage was one of the regular rebel mail wagons.

THE 22,500 ENGLISH SOLDIERS.—By the latest arrivals from England, it is well authenticated that the announcement that the English were about sending 22,500 soldiers to Canada is a canard. The story originated in an idle paragraph in an obscure paper, and had no foundation in fact.

ORFORDVILLE.—Burr Sprague has been appointed post-master at Orfordville, in place of George Helmbolt. This appointment suits us. Burr is an old resident, having lived in the vicinity for the last fifteen years. He received the endorsement of nearly all the business men who get mail matter at his office.

☞ The Boston Post, whose strict democratic orthodoxy will never be questioned, thus speaks of Gen. Fremont's proclamation:

It is evident that as military commander of the state of Missouri he has a right to declare the confiscation of all property, of all that which is as property to the rebels, however it may be estimated by other men, especially if that property becomes an agent in the hands of the rebels to assist them in a successful prosecution of the war. Of the policy of this decided proclamation—of this sending of the shaft home to the heart of the rebellion—there can be little doubt. It is time that the rebels understood that, by their defiance and violation of all law they have, by their own suicidal hands, struck the first blow to that institution, which the political philosophy of Stevens and the sword of Davis would support.

SINGULAR ATTEMPT TO COMMIT SUICIDE.—A stranger, supposed to be a volunteer from Camp Curtain, evidently laboring under an attack of delerium tremens, attempted to commit suicide on Wednesday, about three miles north of Harrisburg, by filling his mouth full of gunpowder, and then setting fire to it. After the explosion he ran to some workmen in an adjoining building, told them what he had done, and that he belonged to camp and was tired life. He bled very profusely at the mouth, and has probably received some internal injury that will cause his death.

THE TOBACCO TRADE.—Virginnia has received tens of thousands of dollars annually in this market for tobacco sold here, and shipped from this place to Europe. The tobacco grown and manufactured in Missouri and Kentucky is rapidly finding a market in this city, and large quantities are sent here, and will go abroad also from this port. Missouri and Kentucky have lost their southern trade and are gradully getting a much better demand in the North. Virginnia will ere long deeply regret the rebellion in which the Southern Cotton States have driven her. She not only loses her trade, but is made perforce, the principal seat of war which the Cotton States have forced upon the country.—N. Y. Express.

THE HARVEST OF DEATH.—Dr. Lyon, brigade surgeon under Gen. Lyon at the battle of Wilson's Creek, was witness to the following extraordinary incident:

A tall rebel soldier waved a large and costly secession flag defiantly, when a cannon ball struck him to the earth, dead. A second soldier picked up the prostrate flag and waved it again—a second cannon ball shattered his body. A third soldier raised and waved the flag, and a third cannon ball crashed into his breast and he fell dead. Yet the fourth time the flag was raised, the soldier waved it, and turned to climb over the fence into the woods. As he stood astride of the fence a moment, to keep the heavy flag upright, a fourth cannon ball struck him in the side, cutting him completely in two, so that one-half of his body fell on one side, while the flag itself lodged on the fence, and was captured a few minutes afterward by our troops. Our troops captured three rebel flags, but lost none.—Hartford Press.

WHAT IS WANTED.—Gen. Wilson, at the recent Union meeting in Faneuil Hall, Boston, hit the nail on the head when said "we need 150,000 more men in the field at once. Gen. McClellan," said he "I speak what I know—needs 150,000 men on the Potomac to-night, and if he had them the foe would be vanquished in in a week."

GOV. DENNISON IN WASHINGTON.—Governor Dennison, of Ohio arrived at Washington on Saturday morning. His business is stated to be with the War Department, having probable reference to the sending of his surplus forces to Western Virginia, for the purpose of giving protection to Gen. Rosencrans' rear.

A TRAITOR ARRESTED AT BUFFALO.—B. F. Langley, the general southern agent of the Illinois Central railroad, residing in New Orleans, was arrested at the American Hotel in Buffalo, on Sunday last, by order of Secretary Seward. He was immediately sent to Fort Lafayette. He was on his way south when taken into custody, and a large number of letters for parties in the seceded states, were found in his possession.

Southern Grumblings.

Under the caption of "Uses of Adversity," the Charleston Mercury discourses thus on the affair at Hatteras:

"The ways of Providence are full of compensations. What is evil turns out to be a greater good. And thus it is, we are inclined to think, with the invasion of the coast of North Carolina and the capture of some 800 confederate troops. In the first place, this Yankee success, we trust, will put an end to our 'masterly inactivity' on the Potomac. Fabius adopted his defensive policy after he had ascertained from three pitched battles, in which the Romans were defeated, that the Carthagenian troops under the leadership of one of the three greatest generals the world has ever seen, were an overmatch for the Roman soldiery. The government of the confederate states has been playing Fabius without having his reasons for his policy. We have not been beaten by the Yankees. On the contrary, in every battle the superiority of the confederate to the United States troops has been evinced. Yet we have persistently hung on to the defensive. From eight to ten thousand troops, with a hundred and forty cannon bearing on Fort Pickens have been diligently watching the said fort. We watched Fort Sumter with equal energy, when our enemy was kind enough to put an end to our watching by informing us that he intended to reinforce the fort. Then and not until then, did we do what could as well have been done long before—take the fort. At Bethel Church we stood on the defensive, and so at both of the battles on Bull Run. The battle of Manassas, in its sequels, is, we believe, totally unparalleled in the history of war. We vanquished our enemy with one-half our troops, and with the other half unharmed we neither cut off his retreat nor pursued him in his flight.

And still further, we quietly continued on our camping ground occupied before the fight, and thus gave our enemy ample time to recover from his defeat, and put in force a stronger force to meet us in battle. Under the Fabian policy, our army has remained stationary for the last six weeks, a prey to ennui and discomfort, discontent and disease, while the capitol at Washington could almost be seen from the general's tents. How long this policy of masterly inactivity would have continued, God only knows. It was gravely announced in a Richmond paper, that they were intrepidly waiting for the enemy to come on again. The enemy, however, very wisely determined that, as they were left the range of the whole continent to attack, Bull Run was not the choicest place for their future operations. They accordingly made a descent upon the coast of North Carolina. Perhaps our government was astonished that they did not return to Bull Run; but seeing that such expectations were not in accordance with Yankee policy, they see the necessity of advancing on Washington. It is clear that our Yankee enemies, always pushing us into our best position, intend to force us into the alternative of a campaign in Maryland, or the devastation of our sea coast. The Carolinas, Georgia and Florida are to be defended in Maryland. It is there, by a firm and aggressive war, that the United States must, on our part, be forced to defend themselves. Immediately after the battle of Manassas, the troops threatening Richmond from the sea coast were removed to Washington. Let us burn Washington, liberate Maryland and threaten our march into Pennsylvania, and our coast will be protected. Is not the invasion of North Carolina with all its loss of men and forts, an admirable benefit, if it forces us into the only open policy by which a peace can be won by our arms?

LOOKING ALIKE.—The following incident illustrate how desirous the volunteers are to obey orders, and the good result of their efforts:

"I suppose you will see that I have written mother's letter with a pencil, and yours with pen and ink. It is because we have just had a lot of pen holders and pens given us by government. We have also had a box and a half of shoe blacking given to each man. You will remember that in my last letter I stated that G. F., one of the privates, had no shoes. When the colonel gave us the blacking, he said he wanted us to look as much alike as possible. So G. F. went to work and blackened his feet and polished them, and when the colonel came along on dress parade, he asked F. why he did that? He replied, "to look as much alike as possible." The colonel burst out laughing, and went, after parade, to the store, and bought him a pair of shoes with his own money.

THE OATH OF ALLEGIANCE.—Col. Forney proposes, in a letter from Washington, that the oath of allegiance to the United States government, in accordance with the late act of congress, be administered in all political assemblages:

No loyal meeting should be held hereafter without having the new oath presented to every one present. All our literary, benevolent and public institutions, of whatever kind, should, present this oath to their members. Let the word go out that every genuine friend of the government and of the flag, wherever he is to be found whether in the pulpit, in the congregation, in the professions, in the school house, in in the mechanic's shop or the counting house—whether in private or in public life, young or old—is expected to swear anew that he is resolved to maintain the government and the flag at all hazards.

HOW GEN. SCOTT TREATS THE PRIVATES.—A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, writing from Washington recently tells the following about Gen. Scott and the volunteer privates:

"Passing Gen. Scott's quarters this afternoon, I was very forcibly impressed with the contrast between his treatment of soldiers and that of hundreds of upstarts, new to the dignity of shoulder straps and authority. A score of bronzed-faced, dusty and perspiring privates had gathered in front of the door, to catch a glimpse of the veteran, as he passed out to enter his carriage. Observing them, he called them up one by one, took them by the hand, inquired the number of their regiment, &c., and all with such combined courtesy and dignity as inspired confidence in the bashful fellows. They turned away with faces beaming with delight at this unexpected interview, and will fight all the better for it."

A SINGULAR WOUND.—It is stated that the surgeon of the hospital at Alexandria reports a singular case of suffering under his charge. A private, engaged in the battle at Bull Run, had a cannon ball pass his face without touching him. He felt a strong concussion of the air on his face as it whistled past, but, regaining his equilibrium, he continued in his place until after the engagement, suffering severely, however, with pain. His cheek soon presented a swollen appearance with increase of pain. He was conveyed to the hospital and is under proper treatment, but the surgeons have had great difficulty in preventing mortification of the parts affected. Experienced army officers say that deaths frequently occur from balls passing without striking the victim.

GEN. BEAUREGARD DEAD.—Under this head a communication appears in the Cincinnati Commercial, of Tuesday, from a person just arrived from New Orleans, who says that Gen. Beauregard died in that city on the 30th ult. The gentleman claims to have had the report from the most authentic sources, and is himself fully persuaded of its truth.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.

This evening's Commercial says: We think we have sufficient authority for saying that so far as any forward movement of troops is concerned, there is no probability of an engagement within 30 days. Of course, if attacked, there will be a general and severe battle. Our troops are well prepared to meet any number the enemy may bring, but for perfecting the arrangements for the onward movement it is deemed best to accomplish certain things, which may not be effectually done in less than 30 days. These matters have no reference to the raising of more men, the government being satisfied that it has all the men it requires.

HARRISBURGH, Sept. 19.

Gov. Curtin has issued a proclamation in accordance with that of the president, ordering that Sept. 26, be observed as a day of fasting and prayer.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.

The subscription to the national loan to-day was $113,000, of which Solomon Sturges, who armed and equipped McClellan's body guard, took $100,000.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.

Flag Officer Stringham having asked to be relieved from the command of the Atlantic squadron, L. M. Gadsburgh has been appointed to succeed him.

The squadron has been divided into two divisions and Capt. Gothsbrough assumes command of the northern divisions, embracing the coast of Virginia and North Carolina.

Capt. F. S. Dupont has been appointed flag officer of the southern Atlantic squadron, embracing the coasts of South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. The new flag officers being juniors to some of the captains now on duty, changes are necessary.

Capt. H. Devis has been detached from special duty at the navy department and appointed captain of the fleet of the southern squadron.

Com. Dayton has been ordered to duty in the south Atlantic squadron, Lieut. C. R. P. Rogers has been ordered to the United States steam frigate Washington. An order was issued from the war department to-day that the military department of Ohio will in future consist of the state of that name, Indiana and so much of Kentucky as lies within fifteen miles of Cincinnati, under the command of Brig. Gen. Mitchell of the United States volunteers, head quarters at Cincinnati.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 19.

The 39th Ohio, Col. Groesbeck, 3rd Iowa, Lieut. Col. Scott, 13th Illinois, Col. Smith, with the force of Missouri State militia and Iowa State troops, under Cols. Craynor and Edwards; 300 regulars and regular cavalry, and six pieces of artillery, under Captain Madison, left St. Joseph and Chillicothe in two columns, on Sunday, and expected to reach Lexington yesterday to reinforce Mulligan.

The reason why Gen. Pope did not surprise, rout and capture Martin Green's rebels, Sunday, the 12th, is explained as follows: Gen. Pope was at Hunnewell on Saturday with 800 men, and knowing Green was encamped in the neighborhood of Florida, he determined to make a night march and surprise him; but learning he had 3,500 men, he sent an engine at noon to Shelbina, eight miles distant, with orders to General Hurlbut to send down 500 men to reinforce him, his force being too small to attack such superior numbers; but in consequence of gross mismanagement on the part of Hurlbut, the troops from Shelbina, which should have reached Hunnewell at three o'clock, did not arrive until eleven p. m., when it was too late to start an expedition that night. Another attack was planned for the next night, and Pope marched his 1400 men 24 miles over a broken and almost roadless country and reached Green's camp early Monday morning to find it deserted, Green having been apprised of Pope's design and fled, and his men being mounted, they could not be overtaken.

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 19.

There is no definite intelligence from Lexington to-day. Dispatches were received here this afternoon from Boonville, saying it was reported, and currently believed there, that Lexington had been taken on Tuesday. Two gentlemen who arrived here late this evening, having left Boonville at 7 o'clock this morning, entirely discredit the reports. There were 4,000 federal troops at Boonville, besides the Home Guards.

Special despatch to the Chicago Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.

Postmaster General Blair's report about Major General Fremont occupied the attention of the cabinet yesterday and to-day.

It is understood that the President will remove Fremont.

If not, Blair will resign, and Lincoln will not consent to that.

A reconnoisance of the rebels discloses that they are making new fortifications west and north of Munson's Hill.

There is good reason to believe that the rebel plans for an attack on Washington have been completely frustrated by the arrest of the secession members of the Maryland legislature; and that they will not now attack Washington.

There is a strong pressure on the president to-day from a new quarter, advocating the removal of Gen. Fremont.

It is said, on good authority, that he is removed.

The charges against Fremont, when made public, will startle the whole country.

They involve his incompetency, extravagance and exclusiveness.

No successor has yet been determined upon.

All is quiet in the vicinity of Washington.

Along the line of our outposts there is slight and unimportant skirmishing.

The Intelligencer says: "We believe the frequent threats of the Richmond papers, in regard to closing the Potomac by batteries along the western shore, have never made any serious impression on our military authorities. There are shells enough at command at any time to enable our vessels to dislodge the vessels along the line."

Yesterday Lieut. Dermot, a Virginian, captured at Bull Run, escaped from the military prison on Capitol Hill.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.

The Navy Department has accepted propositions from Messrs. C. S. Bushnell & Co., of New York, Merrick & sons, of Philadelphia, and J. Errickson, for the construction of iron clad vessels.

Within a few days some changes have taken place in the Navy Departmedt.—Captain Wm. W. McKean, of the Niagara, has been appointed flag officer in the Gulf, in place of Captain Wm. Mevine. Flag officer Stringman having asked to be relieved from the command of the Atlantic squadron, Captain L. M. Goldsborough has been appointed to succeed him. The squadron has been divided, and Captain Goldsborough assumes command of the northern division, embracing the coasts of Virginia and North Carolina. Capt. S. F. Dupont has been appointed flag officer of the southern Atlantic squadron, embracing the coasts of South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. The new flag officers being juniors to some of the captains now on duty, other changes are rendered necessary.—Commander Misroon has been ordered to the Savannah, vice J. B. Hull, detached.—Capt. Marston has been detached from the Cumberland and ordered to the steam frigate Roanoke, vice Capt. Nicholson, detatched. Capt. Chauncey has been detached from the Susquehanna and Capt. Lardner appointed to that ship. Commander Chas. H. Davis has been detached from special duty at the navy department, and appointed captain of the fleet of the southern Atlantic squadron. Commander Percival Drayton has been ordered to special duty in the southern Atlantic squadron. Lieut. C R. P. Rogers has been ordered to the U. S. steam frigate Wabash, the flag ship of the southern Atlantic squadron.

Applications for positions as volunteer lieutenants, acting masters and masters mates, should state the ages, and be accompanied by certificates from the last owners of the vessels; and also from several underwriters of the ports whence the applicants have severally sailed. None others will be considered at the navy department.

So much of Virginia as lies west of the Blue Ridge Mountains will constitute in future a separate command, to be called the department of western Virginia, under Brig. Gen. Rosecrans, headquarters in the field.

The war department has issued an order to carry into effect the law of congress by which soldiers may assign portions of their pay for the benefit of their families, the assignment to be entered on a separate roll, according to a prescribed form, under the supervision of their immediate commander at the time of enlistment. The roll is to be transmitted to the paymaster general, who will make the deductions on each pay roll, and the paymasters of the regiments transmit the money for distribution to those in whose favor the assignment is executed.

The attention of the officers of the regular army is again directed to that section of an act of congress which provides that in all cases of enlistment and re-enlistment in the military service the prescribed oath may be administered by any commissioned officer of the army; fees to civil officers for such service will not, therefore, be admitted.

Another army order is as follows: "Volunteer officers sent out to recruit their regiments will be granted fees and passed over the roads leading to and from the points to which they are ordered. Should the route be over roads for which such passes are not granted, they will be paid their actual traveling expenses out of the fund for recruiting and equipping volunteers; but in no case will they receive the 10 cents per mile, in lieu of the transportation of baggage. There are instances in which free passes have been used and this amount drawn for the same distance.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.

Gen. McClellan to-day reviewed Blenker's brigade. He was attended by the secretary of state, Prince de Joinville and sons, and others.

It is generally believed that the government has had for the past two days under consideration the subject of Fremont's administration of affairs in Missouri, irrespective of his proclamation. The result of their deliberations is not known.

ALBANY, Sept. 19.

The democratic state central committee met here to-day. They adopted the following:

Resolved, That the recent course of the President in promptly over-ruling the assumption of Fremont to transcend the laws, and in limiting his action within the letter of his legitimate authority, meets our unqualified approval.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.

Herald's correspondence.—Gen. McClellan and several of his staff, this afternoon went to examine our earthworks garrisoned by a portion of Gen. Franklin's command. While viewing the enemy's position, Gen. McClellan discovered some 500 or 600 of the enemy approaching about two miles distant. He immediately ordered several rifled cannon put in position, and sent his compliments to the rebels, in the shape of a twenty pound shell, that exploded in their very midst, producing the wildest consternation. The whole force was seen to scatter and fly. There is no doubt that a large number were killed. The enemy did not return the fire.

Gen. McClellan after disposing of this advancing force of rebels, directed his attention to a new battery recently thrown up by the enemy, a short distance south of Munson's Hill, known as Mason's Hill. He threw several shells and shot into their works, causing some of the hands to knock off. They were evidently surprised by this sudden opening of our batteries upon them, as they suddenly disappeared and didn't return fire. Gen. McClellan returned to the city about 9 o'clock.

To-night a deserter from the rebel camp of Munson's Hill, came and was immediately conveyed to Gen. McClellan's head quarters. He stated that Generals Beauregard and Johnston were both at Munson's Hill yesterday, and made thorough reconnoissance of our position. He says there are only about 10,000 soldiers at Munson's Hill, and that the main body of the troops are at Fairfax and Centreville. He says that Jeff. Davis was at these two points on Tuesday last, and reviewed the troops in person. He says he saw Jeff. Davis at Munson's Hill yesterday, who examined our works with a glass. He does not think from all he has seen and could learn, as a private, that there are over 100,000 men at all these points. 1,500 were reported to have been sent from Manassas a few days ago, to northwestern Virginia. When asked if he thought the rebels were going to make an attack on our lines, he replied that they were daily expecting an attack from our forces. He says distinctly that he never heard the intention expressed by the rebels of making an attack on our entrenchments.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.

A recent order of Gen. McClellan declares the firing on an enemy's pickets as contrary to the usage of civilized nations; he therefore orders that there shall be no firing on them unless it becomes necessary to resist an advance or to return fire commenced.

The navy department has received despatches from the flag officer of the East India squadron, who says that Cochin China is at war with the French.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.

No action has yet been taken in the case of Col. Young, respecting his appointment to command of a regiment of Kentucky cavalry.

This is the day fixed by Richmond papers for the advance of Beauregard upon Washington, but there were no signs up to noon to-day of such a movement. The positions of the two armies remain unchanged.

LEAVENWORTH, Sept. 17.

Latest accounts from southern border represent Rains marching northward and Lane's command following him.

The militia of counties in Kansas bordering on the river have been under arms for the last two weeks, to repel any invasion.

IRONTON, Mo., Sept. 18.

A skirmish occurred Thursday at Black River 12 or 15 miles southwest of here, between 3 companies of Indiana cavalry under Maj. Garrit and a body of secessionists under the notorious Ben. Talbot, in which 5 of the rebels were killed and 4 taken prisoners and 35 horses and a quantity of arms captured, the balance scattered in all direction and being familiar with the country eluded pursuit.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 17.

Considerable excitement was created on Saturday by the appearance of confederate scouts on the opposite bank of the river Aco. Twenty mounted men were sent over the river this morning from this place, who discovered a rebel camp of from two to three hundred some twenty miles distant from the river. An additionall force was detailed in the afternoon, who killed seven rebels and took six prisoners, with the same number of horses, and destroyed their barracks. Only one of the federal troops was wounded.

Yesterday a large force of rebels, supposed to be a part of the band recently encamped in St. Joseph, made their appearance four miles below, on the opposite shore, and attempted to cross in an old flat boat, sending a part of their force to attract the attention of the federals by firing into this city and Wyandotte. They were repulsed, however, and the boat sunk.

It is believed they succeeded in crossing at Sibley Ferry, 16 miles below, which they have possession of. Last evening the city was alive with skirmishers of both parties. Several shots were heard but no damage was done.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 20.

A gentleman named King, who left the point on the Missouri river opposite Lexington on Wednesday night, arrived this morning. He reports a severe fight took place on Tuesday for the possession of three ferry boats which lay at the levee. Price's forces advanced on boats in two bodys, one from above and the other below the town, and after a very sharp engagement they were captured. The boats were not on a fair range of Mulligan's guns, his fortifications being so situated as to prevent him from commanding them completely and his force was too small to admit of his making a sortie against Price's overwhelming numbers, but Mr. King says he saw twelve wagon loads of killed and wounded taken off after the fight.

He also says Price assaulted Mulligan's fortifications four or five times on Wednesday, but was repulsed each time, with a of between three and four thousand.

Reinforcements from the north, probably under command of Gen. Sturgis, were expected to arrive late on Wednesday night but as Price had possesion of the ferry boats they would not be able to cross the river and of course could be of little or no service to Mulligan. King's account is quite incoherent and entire reliance not placed on it here. There is little in question however that a battle had taken place but details are as yet unknown.

HEALTH OF JEFF. DAVIS.—The Richmond Examiner of the 9th says:

"President Davis has so far recovered from his recent severe attack of illness as to have been able, on Saturday afternoon, to take an airing in his carriage. It is hoped that in a few days his health will be sufficiently restored to permit his resumption of his active business habits. This will be melancholy tidings, we know, to the sage and saint of the New York Herald, and will prove, we "guess," as bitter as wormwood to the Lincolnites generally; but its announcement will be hailed with earnest gratification throughout the southern confederacy, and we rejoice to "make a note on't."

SATISFACTORY.—The New York Commercial Advertiser grows facetious over the prostration of business in that city. It says: "Why so many stores are labeled 'to let' is on account of the number of left-tenants to be seen in the streets."

MAGOFFIN AND BRECKINRIDGE.—The St. Paul Press says that Magoffin and Breckinridge own considerable proprety in Minnesota, and the moment they commit any ove-ract of treason, their title deeds will be looked up by the proper authorities.

THE SEVENTH REGIMENT.—Dr. Palmer telegraphed us yesterday at about three o'clock P. M., as to the time the seventh regiment would pass through this city, but the dispatch did not reach us till after dark, long after our paper was worked off. The regiment will leave Madison to-morrow morning at nine o'clock, and will reach this city between eleven and twelve o'clock. Let us give the boys an enthusiastic reception. They deserve it.

Since writing the above, we are informed that the regiment will tarry here for dinner, and we know enough of the generosity of our citizens to believe that they will furnish an abundant one. The train will arrive at half-past eleven, and remain half an hour.

CAMP TREDWAY.—We understand that the thirteenth regiment, about to be quartered in this city, have selected the above as the name of their camp, in honor of Gen. Tredway, quarter master general of this state. It is an honor well deserved by that officer. He has the high credit of being active, efficient and capable; possessing all the qualifications necessary for an able administration of the responsible office to which he has been called. The ground selected for the camp is in the Third Ward, on a portion of the prairie known as Clark & Withrow's addition.

SUGAR RIVER VALLEY RAILROAD.—The board of directors of this road were in session in this city yesterday and today. They have taken steps to make an effort for the purchase of iron for the road, and transacted other important business in connection with the enterprise.

Messrs. Abeel, Moore and Thompson were elected an executive committee to direct in matters pertaining to the interests of the company. It is a hard time to build railroads, but this company having, last winter, obtained the land grant, are determined to push the enterprise, and if possible complete the road within the next year.

THE PEOPLE'S FAIR.—We did not get time to visit the fair grounds at all, not even to listen to Senator Doolittle's address. That was able of course, and we are promised a copy for publication. The fair was a complete success; the attendance was very large and the receipts satisfactory. Many entries were made by families who did not bring their articles upon the ground.

The sporting match has been adjourned to the 27th inst., to come off on the Fair Grounds.

The premiums awarded and not yet paid, will be paid at Benton's store, one door west of Farmers Mill.

PANORAMA OF THE WAR.—The last chance to see the grand exhibition will be given on Saturday afternoon, next, at 3 o'clock, and in the evening at 8 o'clock.—Admission ten cents. This will give the school children, and all others who do not wish to go out in the evening, an opportunity to see the panorama in the afternoon. Lappin's Hall will be lighted by gas, (the windows being darkened) and the same effect produced in the afternoon as in the evening. Give them a good full house.

POSTPONEMENT.—The concert of Mr. Kemmerer, advertised for this evening, is postponed to to-morrow evening, on account of the unfavorable weather.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—Allow the Relief Committee of the City of Janesville, to express to the exhibitors of vegetables and fruits at the county fair, their thanks for the splendid contribution of articles to the families of soldiers in the war. The contribution consisted of all the vegetables and fruits on exhibition, and will go to the comfort and pleasure of these families for many days. Especial gratitude is due to P. Bidwell, esq., of Harmony, for his exertions as well as large contributions. And to Geo. J. Kellogg, esq., of Belle Cottage Nursery, the secretary of the committee returns special thanks for a beautiful box of the whitest honey. By actions like the foregoing, the people of the county are exhibiting their love for our country's cause, and carry to the hearts of our soldiers, glad feeling of recollections at home.

H. W. COLLINS, Sec'y.

THE SEVENTH REGIMENT.—The Chicago Journal makes the following suggestions with reference to the seventh Wisconsin:

"The seventh Wisconsin regiment of volunteers will arrive in this city on Saturday afternoon between four and five o'clock, via the Chicago and Northwestern Railway. They will go hence over the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad.

We are glad to learn that many of our citizens are bestirring themselves in the matter of giving the gallant Wisconsiners a fitting reception. If the military of this city will but consent to do a little "Home Guard" duty on the occasion, and the civilians open their hearts and provide refreshments, the boys will be treated only as they deserve to be. The P. Ft. W. & C. R. R. Co. will provide the music."

AN ANXIOUS HUSBAND GETS A DISCOMFORTING ANSWER FROM THE SPIRITS.—A lady of Columbus inquired of the spirit rappers how many children she had.

"Four," replied the spirit.

The husband, startled at the accuracy of the reply, stepped up and enquired,

"How many children have I?"

"Two," answered the rapping medium.

The husband and wife looked at each other with an odd smile for a moment, and then retired non-believers.

TRUE COURAGE.—For a man to say that his soul is incapable of fear, is just as absurd as to say, that, from a peculiarity of constitution, when dipped in water, he does not get wet. You, human beings, whoever you may be, when you are placed in danger, and reflect upon the fact, you feel afraid. Don't vapor and say no—we know the mental machine must work, unless it be diseased. Now the thoughtful man admits all this—he admits that a bullet through his brain would be a serious thing for himself, and likewise to his wife and children—he admits he shrinks from such a prospect—he will take pains to protect himself from the risk, but he says that if duty requires him to run the risk he will run it. This is the courage of a civilized man, as opposed to the blind, bull-dog insensibility of the savage. This is courage—to know the existence of danger, but to face it, nevertheless.—Country Parson.

DISAPPOINTMENT.—Good reader, if you and I ever reach the Father's house, we will look back and see that the sharp-tongued, rough visaged, teacher disappointment is one of our guides to bring us thither.—He often took us by the thorny paths. He often stripped us of our worldly goods; but that was only to make us travel the fiercer and faster on our heavenward way. He often led us into the valley of the death shadow; but never did the promises read so sweetly to us, as when read by the light of faith in that very valley. The cross of Christ was the point toward which he oftenest made us look, and the favorite passage he gave us for our encouragement was "All things work well together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purpose." Dear old rough harsh-handed teacher! we will build a monument to him yet, and hang it with garlands. And on it we will write—"Blessed be the memory of DISAPPOINTMENT.—Independent.

THE REBEL OUTRAGES AT ST. JOSEPHS, MO.—OUR REAPPEARANCE.—After a week's suspension we again resume the publication of our paper, having been forced to suspend by a squad of armed men belonging to the camps at that time in possession of the city. The suppression of our paper was but one of the many acts of lawlessness committed by them, of which we shall have more to say hereafter. Suffice it to say that for a week our city was a scene of lawlessness never before witnessed in this section.—Stores were broken open, goods pressed, private arms and horses taken, and confederate script tendered for the same. In many cases even this was not done; the goods taken and no receipt whatever given for them. Upon the arrival of Col. Smith, of the 16th Illinois, order was restored. Saturday was a quiet day, all the stores being closed by his request. Capt. Wells having been appointed provost marshal, we may now predict a speedy return to the regular routine of business, and our city wear its usual quiet aspect.—St. Josephs Journal, Sept. 16th.

A COMPLIMENT FROM THE WAR DEPARTMENT.—A letter from Hon. Simon Cameron, secretary of war, to Gov. Randall, compliments the executive of Wisconsin highly for the promptness and efficient management shown in fitting out regiments from Wisconsin.

A THOUGHT FOR HUSBANDS.—Rev. Thos. Brainard thus feelingly admonishes married men:

"I would ask husbands to appreciate those who make the joy of their dwellings. Are not the kindnesses of wives often unnoted, unthanked, unregarded? They are shut out from the world's applause; let them rest in the assurances of your gratitude and consideration. When you see them cold and still in death, it will not grieve you to remember that your love has thrown sunshine into the shade of their allotment, that your prayers and example have given aid in the right training of your children."

WILL THE POTOMAC BE CLOSED?—The repeated threats of the rebel journals of Richmond, that the Potomac was soon to be closed by the batteries at Aquia Creek, has had the effect of alarming some timid people here as to the safety of the navigation of the river. It is not shared in by gentlemen high in authority, who are satisfied that any really dangerous batteries at Aquia Creek or elsewhere, can easily be shelled out by our armed transports. They can undoubtedly impede navigation for a short time; but until they can spare 30,000 men for the permanent occupation of the Lower Potomac, and beat us in more than one battle, they cannot keep navigation closed. It may be, after all, that you will hear of the first fight on the Lower Potomac, as after shelling their batteries our troops may land to obtain possession of them, and thus lead to a general engagement.—Washington Cor. N. Y. World.

The Nashville Union says that at a meeting of the Typographical Association of that city, on the night of the 9th inst., an ordinance dissolving all connection with the National Union was adopted by a unanimous vote.

GREAT REDUCTION
—IN—
The Prices
—OF—
SINGER & CO.'S
STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

LEATHER WORK,

In Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc. etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Gauges, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

CHAPTER 242.

AS AMENDED BY CHAPTER 1, EXTRA SESSION.

AN ACT to amend the General Banking Law, and the several acts amendatory thereof.

The People of the State of Wisconsin represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes with the thereunto belonging amendment, (see chapter 98 of the general laws of 1858,) is hereby amended as follows: by striking out the following words: "Said stocks to be valued at a rate to be estimated and governed by the average rate at which said stocks have been sold in the city of New York, within the next six months preceding the time when such stocks may be left on deposit with the comptroller." By striking out the words "equal to," and inserting after the words "not exceeding," the words "in value." By striking out the following words: "But such public stocks shall in all cases be, or be made to be equal to a stock producing six per cent per annum; and it shall not be lawful for the bank comptroller to take such stock at a rate above its par value, nor above its current market value in the city of New York at the time of deposits, by such person or association of persons;" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stock which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks; but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks;" so that the said section shall henceforth read as follows: "When ever, hereafter, any person or association of persons, formed for the purpose of banking under the provisions of this chapter, shall duly assign and transfer in trust to the treasurer of this state, any portion of the public stocks issued or to be issued by the United States or any state stocks, on which full interest is annually paid, such person or association of persons shall be entitled to receive from the bank comptroller an amount of such circulating notes of different denominations, registered and countersigned, and not exceeding in value the amount of public stocks assigned and tranferred as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stocks, which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks: Provided, that if in the opinion of the bank comptroller, together with the governor and the secretary of state any stocks offered shall be deemed insecure, they shall not be received as such securities under the provisions of this act; and provided, further, that from and after the first day of December, 1861, the bank comptroller shall not receive as security for circulating bank notes, any other public stocks than those issued by the state of Wisconsin and the United States.

SEC. 2. Any public stocks described in the preceding section, and issued at a rate of interest less than five per cent per annum to be receivable by the bank comptroller, shall be made to be equal to stocks producing five per cent per annum.

SEC. 3. Section 40 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, is hereby amended by inserting between the words "located" and "to," in the 19th line of said section, the words "or to the judge at chambers."

SEC. 4. Every bank and banking association now organized in this state, and all banks and banking associations that shall be organized before the 1st of day December, 1861 except such banks and banking associations as are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall, on or before said first day of December next, appoint an agent, who shall keep an office in the city of Milwaukee or in the city of Madison, for the redemption of all circulating notes issued by such bank or banking association, which shall be presented to such agent for payment or redemption.

SEC. 5. The appointment of such agent shall be made in writing, and such written appointment shall be delivered to the bank comptroller on or before said first day of December next, who shall file the same in his office. If any bank or banking association shall neglect or refuse to appoint such agent within the time above mentioned, the bank comptroller shall appoint such agent for such bank or banking association.

SEC. 6. The bank comptroller shall, immediately after said first day of December next, during such time as he may deem advisable, publish a list of such agents in one daily newspaper published in the city of Madison, and in one daily newspaper published in the city of Milwaukee, the expense whereof shall be equally divided among the several banks or banking associations so published, and be paid by them to the comptroller on demand, under penalty of forfeiture of one hundred dollars, to be collected and applied as provided in respect to the forfeiture named in section 19, chapter 71, of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 7. Every bank or banking association hereafter organized, shall before receiving any circulating notes from the bank comptroller, appoint an agent for the purposes of this act; and such appointment shall be immediately published in the manner aforesaid, at the expense of such bank or banking association, to be collected in the manner above provided.

SEC. 8. Appointments of agents made in pursuance of this act, may be revoked and new appointments of agents made from time to time, by delivering such revocation and appointment to the bank comptroller, who shall cause the same to be published as before provided.

SEC. 9. It shall be lawful for any number of banks or banking associations, authorized by this act, to appoint an agent to associate together for raising a joint fund, to be placed in the hands of their common agent for the redemption of their circulating notes, in the city of Milwaukee or Madison, and also the circulating notes of other banks in such manner, and under such regulations as may be agreed upon, and to employ such agents and clerks as they may deem necessary to carry on the business of such common agency; but nothing in this section contained shall authorize the redemption or purchase by such agency of any circulating notes at a rate of discount greater than is herein provided for, nor relieve such banks from any duty or liability required or imposed by this act.

SEC. 10. Every such bank or banking association in this state, except such banks and banking associations as now are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall redeem and pay on demand, in the lawful money of the United States, all circulating notes issued by such banks or banking associations, presented for redemption at the office of the agent of such bank or banking association, during the usual hours of business of bankers, between the hours of ten and three o'clock, at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent.

SEC. 11. Every bank or banking association, whose agent shall neglect or refuse to redeem its notes on demand, as aforesaid, shall, on proof being made to the bank comptroller of such neglect or refusal, by the affidavit of the person who presented said notes for redemption or payment, and on depositing in his office the notes so presented, be subject to the same penalties, and be proceeded against in the same manner, as is now provided by law for cases where the circulating notes of any bank or banking association are protested for non-payment, unless the comptroller shall be satisfied that there is a good and legal defence against the payment of such notes.

SEC. 12. Every bank and banking association shall redeem its circulating notes as now provided by law, but in case of neglect or refusal to redeem its notes on presentation at its counter, and of protest therefor, such bank or banking association, if not located within the city of Milwaukee or the city of Madison, shall not be liable to the holder of such notes for damages: Provided, it shall within fifteen days after receiving notice from the comptroller to pay the same, redeem said notes in the lawful money of the United States, with interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum; Provided, that the officer or officers of such bank or banking association so neglecting or refusing to redeem its notes on demand, may endorse upon the bills or package of bills so presented, an acknowledgement of such presentation and refusal, and waiving protest upon the same; and such endorsement shall be held as evidence of the statement therein made.

No bank or banking association shall hereafter receive upon the deposite of bonds, circulating notes to an amount exceeding three times its bona fide cash capital actually paid in, and the bank comptroller is hereby authorized and required to ascertain what the actual cash capital of any bank or banking association applying for circulation, except in exchange for mutilated bills, may be and for this purpose he is authorized to examine any person on oath, and to compel answers under oath, from any officer or stockholder of any bank or banking association so applying, or any other person.

SEC. 14. No bank or banking association shall hereafter be organized in this state, nor shall any more circulating notes be issued to any bank or banking association in this state, unless said bank or banking association shall have a bona fide cash capital of at least fifteen thousand dollars actually paid in, which shall remain in such bank or banking association as capital, and employed in legitimate banking at the place where the bank is located; and it is hereby declared that the bonds deposited with the bank comptroller shall not be considered as any evidence of the existence of capital in any such bank or banking association, nor of the amount and extent of such capital; and it is hereby made the duty of the comptroller, before issuing any more circulating notes to any such bank or banking association now organized, or that shall be hereafter organized, except in exchange for mutilated notes, to satisfy himself by an examination under oath of an officer or stockholder of such bank or banking association that it has fully complied with the provisions of this section, and of the next preceding section of this act, and for the purposes of such examination the comptroller, or in his absence the deputy comptroller, is hereby authorized to administer oaths; Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to permit any bank to issue circulating notes to any greater amount than its nominal capital.

SEC. 15. From and after the first day of December next it shall not be lawful for any bank or banking association, banker, broker, company or corporation, to circulate or attempt to circulate, or to pay out as money, any bill, note or other evidence of debt, issued or purporting to have been issued by any bank, banking association, company, corporation or individual located or residing out of this state, unless said bill, or note or evidence of debt shall, for the last six months preceding such circulating or paying out, have been redeemable in the city of New York or Boston in current money of the United States, at a rate of discount not exceeding three fourths of one per cent; and the decision of the bank comptroller as to the rate of such discount shall be final and conclusive. Every bank or banking association, banker or broker, corporation or company, offending against the provisions of this section shall forfeit for each and every offense the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with costs of suit in the name and for the use of any person who shall sue for the same and prosecute such suit to judgment in any court having cognizance thereof.

SEC. 16. Each and every person owning or holding stock in any bank or banking association, who shall sell, transfer or assign his stock or any portion thereof, in any such bank or banking association, shall be held, and remain for the term of six months from and after such sale, transfer or assignment, as aforesaid, personally liable to the amount of stock so as aforesaid sold, transferred or assigned by him for the payment of all the debts and liabilities of such bank or banking association, existing at the time of such sale, transfer or assignment.

SEC. 17. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.
